FOREWORD FROM ROTHMANS OF PALL MALL

For the 16th time it is our pleasure to introduce a new edition of the Rothmans Football Yearbook.

Last season's great debates were on subjects as diverse as hooliganism, television coverage and lack of revenue – now critical to the future of some clubs in the lower divisions.

But despite the many difficulties which surround the game it continues to be our national sport, attracts millions of spectators at all levels and is still the game that youngsters want to play in schools and parks around the country.

No doubt soccer in Britain will receive another boost from the forthcoming World Cup. Nobody who experienced the 1966 World Cup will ever forget how much that did to increase enthusiasm for the sport. Let us hope that the next campaign gives us another success to cheer.

INTRODUCTION

The sixteenth edition of Rothmans Football Yearbook contains the usual full coverage of domestic, European and international football, with line-ups, goalscorers and attendances of all matches in the English and Scottish Leagues, as well as the Milk Cup, FA Cup, Skol (Scottish League) Cup and the Scottish Cup. All international matches involving the four home countries and Eire are also covered, together with sections on Welsh and Northern Irish League football and non-League football.

The 1986 World Cup qualifying tournament is covered in detail, with team line-ups, results, goalscorers and attendances for all European matches so far completed, similar full details for the South American qualifying tournament, now complete, and a full list of results so far for the other confederations. There is also a list of remaining fixtures for the tournament.

New features this year include a history of Olympic football – now the most heavily-attended of all Olympic sports – and a new League results section for the major European nations within the well-established European Nations Section of the yearbook.

The Editor would like to thank Maurice Golesworthy, Lionel Francis and Alan Elliott respectively for their assistance in the compilation of the Diary, non-League football and the Scottish section, and thanks are also due to Sarah Willis, whose painstaking and conscientious reading of all the proofs has been of invaluable assistance in the preparation of the book. Special thanks go to Jack Rollin, former editor of Rothmans Football Yearbook, whose support and advice have been of immense value to me.

The Editor would also like to pay tribute to the various organisations who have helped to make this edition complete, especially Mike Foster of The Football League, Mike McNamara of The Football Association, and the secretaries of all the Football League and Scottish League clubs for their kind co-operation. The ready availability of Football League secretary Graham Kelly and his staff to answer queries was as usual most appreciated, and thanks are due in equal measure to Jim Farry, the Scottish Football League secretary, and his staff.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The Editor would like to express his appreciation of the following individuals and organisations for their co-operation: Glynis Firth, Sandra Whiteside, Sheila Murphy and Debbie Singleton (all from The Football League); Adrian Titcombe (The Football Association); The Scottish Football Association, The Welsh Football Association, David C. Thomson of The Scottish Football League; Alan Dick, Malcolm Brodie, A. Rice (The English Schools FA), W. P. Goss (AFA), and Jenny Sutton. Finally, thanks to Celia Kent, the house editor of the book, for her support and encouragement during the year, and to David Clark for his assistance with computer programming.

EDITORIAL

On 29 May 1985, as witnessed by millions on live television, there occurred the worst hooliganism-related tragedy in European football history. The reaction of the football authorities to the events of that awful night in Brussels was also, in its own way, tragic. The three main organisations concerned – the English FA, UEFA and FIFA – demonstrated an alarming inability to deal sensibly with the matter and as a result the myth that hooliganism is the 'British disease' was reinforced and perpetuated. In fact, the events of that night should have buried it for ever.

In the aftermath of any such major calamity, the first and proper thing to do is to hold an inquiry. Indeed, UEFA set one up, but rather than waiting for the results of the inquiry, they handed down a punishment on English clubs immediately. This unseemly haste to pass a sentence before a conviction had been obtained was surpassed only by the English FA's voluntary withdrawal of English clubs from European competition for season 1985–86. Perhaps UEFA took this as a plea of 'guilty' and decided not to wait for the inquiry's findings to be published, or perhaps they made up their minds long ago that English supporters were undesirable, and were looking for an excuse to ban them. Either way, the ban does not deal with the problem, for when it is eventually lifted the same louts will still be there causing the same problems.

There is no point in punishing clubs, along with the vast majority of well-behaved people who pay to watch them, for the crimes of a tiny proportion of the spectators. It is the hooligans who should be taken out of circulation, not the clubs, and in this respect the courts, both here and on the mainland of Europe, have been far too lenient for far too long. The usual punishment in the UK is a fine, whereas courts on the Continent tend to deport rather than detain. Either way, the people who are causing the problem remain free to continue their destructive habits.

Although nothing can excuse the behaviour of the hooligans, it seems that, particularly in the case of the incidents at Heysel Stadium, equally serious charges can be made against the authorities – especially UEFA and the Belgian police. Important mistakes were made for which there can be no excuse, and admissions made since the tragedy by those two bodies seem to confirm this.

First, the stadium itself was clearly not of a sufficiently high standard for such a major event as the European Cup final. Within days of 29 May UEFA announced that no further major games under their auspices would be staged at Heysel for a period of 10 years. This announcement was quite astonishing, because one is left wondering why the stadium was chosen in the first place. Crumbling terraces provided ammunition which was used – mostly by Italians – against a frightened and cowardly police force. The hour-long spectacle of a small group of Juventus supporters hurling rocks, sticks and other missiles at a line of policemen who did nothing but cower behind riot shields was sickening, and it should be noted that while British fans have a bad reputation, it was an Italian (a fact since confirmed by Turin police) who was seen with a firearm. It may have been a starting pistol, but did the policemen who had to face it know that at the time?

Crumbling terraces apart, the main problem with the physical condition of the stadium was that the fencing intended to segregate groups of rival supporters was totally inadequate. Segregation is a tried and tested method of crowd control, and had the fencing been strong enough and high enough, the 'invasion' by some Liverpool supporters which seemed to cause the panic which led to 38 deaths could not have taken place. Once it had happened, the Belgians added insult to injury by sending in riot police rather than medics, who didn't arrive for a further 30 minutes. At the time of writing, nobody knows what sort of provocation the Liverpool supporters were subjected to, but even if severe provocation cannot be used in their defence, any sensible stadium authority would have ensured that such invasions were not possible, and there is a strong possibility that the whole incident would have been confined to a shouting match.

Even if the fencing is adequate, it might just as well be taken down altogether if there is not the strictest control over the sale of tickets, and the Belgians stand condemned here as well. Selling tickets on the day of the match to anyone who turns up at the ticket office with ready cash is, to say the least, wildly irresponsible. The resultant mixture of rival fans is a recipe for trouble, and it has been suggested that acts of violence by Italians against outnumbered Liverpool supporters in the same section may have been the trigger which started the invasion. If so, and we will have to wait for the inquiry's findings before we can be sure, UEFA will have to take such steps as are necessary to ensure that no such sale ever takes place again. Prevention is better than cure, and a little applied common sense in these administrative matters is essential.

English clubs have the best record of success of any European country in the three main UEFA club competitions, and their absence, while doing nothing to combat hooliganism, will devalue all three tournaments. In one respect, the British government have reacted more constructively than the football authorities by taking steps to ban alcohol in English stadia. This has been done in Scotland with marked results in improvement in crowd behaviour, but the English Football League and FA were clearly not about to follow that example of their own volition. True, they are concerned with financial considerations, but as alcohol seems to be a contributory factor to hooliganism, the ban is to be applauded – with one proviso. If the vast majority of innocent paying spectators – who keep the game alive – are to be deprived of the pleasure of a quiet drink, then the ban must be extended to include the whole stadium, with no exceptions for executive boxes or boardrooms.

England's reputation in the world of football is now at its lowest ebb, but tides always turn. At the time of writing FIFA had already relented and lifted the world-wide ban which they imposed on English clubs. This did them no real credit, for they originally said that the ban was provisional pending the outcome of the inquiry, and then they lifted it without waiting for those results. Curious behaviour, but perhaps UEFA will follow their example and realise that banning clubs is not the answer. There is no single, simple answer, or it would have been found years ago, but sensible administration, properly-equipped stadia and an appropriately strong response when the real villains of the piece – the hooligans themselves – are convicted will go a long way towards re-establishing the reputation of the game itself, particularly here in the country which gave football to the world and now finds itself cast into the wilderness.

PETER DUNK

Rothmans Football Awards 1985

JOHN CLAYTON Not only did he finish as joint top scorer in the Football League with Plymouth Argyle's Tommy Tynan on 31 goals, but he more than trebled his previous total achieved throughout his career. A Scot from Elgin he was originally apprenticed to Derby County but after four seasons he moved to Hong Kong to play for Bulova. Chesterfield brought him back to England in 1983–84 and he was able to establish himself as a League player for the first time. In 1984–85 with his Tranmere Rovers colleague Colin Clarke they registered more than 60 League and Cup goals.

DARLINGTON Winning the World Cup in 1966 was a milestone of some note for England. And at Darlington they were preparing for their own piece of history by winning promotion to the Third Division. But it was to be a short-lived experience in that they went straight back down and until last season remained with the unenviable record as the longest serving club in the lowest division. For much of 1984–85 it seemed that they would make promotion comfortably but a series of late hiccups almost cost them dearly. However like all good stories there was a happy ending and a return to Division Three from the Fourth Division.

WILLIE MILLER The wholehearted dedication and skill of skipper Willie Miller in the heart of the Aberdeen defence has been one of the most telling factors in the emergence of the Pittodrie club as a force in Scottish League circles during the last half a decade or more. Last season Aberdeen added another Premier Division title and established a record or two in the process. The Scottish national team has also benefited from the player's consistency and ability and he is the Dons most capped international.

PETER REID A few years ago injury and disputes appeared to have ruined the first-class career of this midfield player. During one spell of almost five years at Burnden Park he failed to make a score of appearances in any one season for Bolton Wanderers. Transfer to Everton proved the breakthrough he needed and last season he was the mainspring in the Goodison Park midfield machinery which churned out championship and European successes in impressive fashion. Then winning his first full international cap for England at last put his career in pole position.

JIM SMITH Oxford United's success in reaching the First Division for the first time in the club's comparatively brief League career was a personal triumph for manager Jim Smith who has since moved on to join Queen's Park Rangers in a similar capacity. The 'Bald Eagle' as he is affectionately known in the game was flying high along with his United team at the top of Division Two – a far cry from his first modest achievement as a manager winning the Eastern Professional Floodlit Cup with Boston United. A wing half in his playing days with Sheffield United, Aldershot, Halifax Town and Lincoln City his managerial career has also encompassed Colchester United, Blackburn Rovers and Birmingham City.

TOMMY TYNAN Merseyside was the birthplace of this much travelled striker yet his years at Liverpool failed to yield a chance of League action with the Anfield club. Only a loan spell with Swansea gave him his League debut at all. But transfers to Sheffield Wednesday, Lincoln City, Newport County and then Plymouth altered all that and his 31 goals last season took his total of goals in the League competition to 143. Sharing the award as the Football League's leading marksman with Tranmere Rovers' John Clayton has brought further testimony to his prowess as a goalscorer.

WEALDSTONE A first non-league double of Gola League and Challenge Trophy represented the pinnacle of Wealdstone's performances since they were formed in 1900. Their formative years produced gradual improvement and it was in the Athenian League that they made their name in the amateur game. Subsequent adoption of semi-professionalism and entry into the Southern League was a stepping stone to the Alliance Premier League and further glory for the Lower Mead based London suburban club seems assured.

8 The saga of Gordon Strachan's transfer from Aberdeen to either Manchester United or Cologne is settled in Paris. He will join United for £500,000. Cologne, who claimed that Strachan agreed to sign for them, are given around £100,000 compensation by Aberdeen.

21 Glenn Hoddle signs a new four-year contract with Spurs. League tribunal order Birmingham to pay Wolves £80,000 for striker Wayne Clarke. Wolves were reported to be asking £150,000. Wolves will also receive 50 per cent of any profit made by Birmingham from any future transfer.

22 Liverpool's top scorer Ian Rush will miss kick-off because of a knee injury that may require surgery.

23 After only 38 days as Aston Villa's manager Graham Turner threatens to have a big clear out of players. This follows a poor performance in a pre-season tournament in Barcelona.

24 David Hodgson moves from Liverpool to Sunderland in £125,000 transfer. Brian Clough is reported very critical of his recent £125,000 signing from Sheffield Wednesday – Gary Megson. Allan Clarke resigns Scunthorpe managership and chairman David Wraith also departs.

25 In the big kick-off Chelsea make a good return to the First Division with a 1-1 draw in front of a crowd of over 45,000 at Highbury where Kerry Dixon gets their equaliser. With £700,000 Clive Allen scoring two goals Spurs beat Charity Shield winners Everton 4-1 at Goodison. Both of the other clubs newly returned to the First Division enjoy good wins – Sheffield Wednesday beat Nottingham Forest 3-1 at Hillsborough while Newcastle win 3-2 at Leicester. The biggest crowd of the day, 53,668, see Manchester United, with £2m worth of talent, held to a 1-1 draw by Watford at Old Trafford. Exeter City are the day's top scorers beating Northampton 5-0 at St James Park. In the Scottish League Rangers and Celtic fight out a goalless draw – only the second such result in League clashes between the Old Firm at Ibrox since the war. Gordon Durie scores all of East Fife's goals in a 4-2 win at Hamilton Academical.

27 Spurs are surprisingly held to a 2-2 draw by Leicester at home, but Newcastle win again, beating fellow promotion club Sheffield Wednesday 2-1 at St James' Park. In the Milk Cup Bristol Rovers give new manager Lou Macari something to think about by beating his Swindon side 5-1 on their own ground.

28 The unfortunate saga of Ossie Ardiles' injuries continues as he suffers another set-back with a cartilage operation on his left knee. Frank Barlow, assistant manager of Scunthorpe, is promoted to manager.

29 Some clubs express dissatisfaction with Football League's distribution of £300,000 compensation fund for clubs who lost money due to their matches being televised live last season. Chelsea announce a pre-tax profit of £185,000 thanks largely to their commercial department which made £480,000. Debts, which were over £4m 10 years ago are now down to just over £200,000. Wolves midfielder Neville Hamilton suffers heart attack during training.

30 Manchester United report an astonishing financial recovery – a record profit of £1m on the year. Two years ago they made a record loss of £2.3m. Aldershot ban their Supporters' Club from the ground. The directors were apparently annoyed with the club for backing a consortium headed by former Chelsea player, Ron Harris, which is trying to take over.

31 The movement to combat hooliganism by having all-seated soccer stadiums receives a shock from Coventry where new chairman John Poynton is wanting to tear out seats and restore some of the terracing. With seven players out sick Darlington are forced to cancel their Fourth Division visit to Southend tomorrow.

September 1984

1 The rate of goalscoring is generally up this Saturday as Peter Davenport gets the season's initial First Division hat-trick with Nottingham Forest beating Sunderland 3-1. There is an 11-minute hold-up at Coventry v Leicester game while rival fans fight it out on the pitch. Now the spectators at this all-seat stadium are likely to be caged in. Newcastle beat Aston Villa 3-0 and top the League with the First Division's only 100 per cent record after just three games. At Aberdeen the referee gives Hibernian manager Pat Stanton his marching orders after the manager had disputed an offside decision from the touch-line. Derby's Kevin Wilson scores his second hat-trick in four days – four goals in a mid-week Milk Cup tie away to Hartlepool is followed by three against Bolton at home in the Third Division.

3 Republic of Ireland players threaten to strike if they do not receive a donation for their benevolent fund from TV fee for next week's World Cup game against Russia. The amount requested from the fee is only £500.

4 Newcastle suffer their first defeat of the season – 2-0 at Highbury. Spurs are also beaten for the first time – 1-0 at Sunderland. Justin Fashanu receives his third booking of the season as Notts County are beaten 2-0 at home by Barnsley. FA National Soccer School officially opened at Lilleshall by HRH The Duke of Kent. Twenty-five 14-year-olds begin their course.

5 A Trevor Christie hat-trick helps Nottingham Forest to their biggest-ever win at Villa Park – 5-0.

6 Villa's new manager Graham Turner complains that some of his players are not earning their high wages. Rebuilding their team Notts County sign Alan Young from Brighton and Steve Sims from Watford for £50,000 each.

8 Manchester United chalk up their first victory of the season, after four draws in a row, thrashing Newcastle 5-0 in front of nearly 55,000 spectators at Old Trafford. 6 In a Sunday game Nottingham Forest and Newcastle chalk up the 11th draw (1-1) of the Third Round.

This was particularly unfortunate as Sunderland had increased their entrance prices. The Pools Panel is in action for the first time this season with a total of 35 games in England and Scotland postponed. Aberdeen look like retaining the Scottish League championship as they hammer bottom club Morton 5-0. They order Celtic to play their next European competition home match behind closed doors and fine the club £17,000. Football League chairmen do not accept the new four-year TV deal worth about £16m. Wolves cannot afford the fee but this is King's best chance so far to get back into the Football League.

24 Watford decline £200,000 bid from Newcastle to sign George Reilly. 'He is not for sale.' Andy King joins Wolves after financing his move from Cambuur.

8 The struggle to avoid relegation from the First Division is one of the most widespread in the League's history. In the Second Division Portsmouth gain a fine 3-1 win at Fulham which puts them in second position behind Oxford who are not so convincing in a 1-0 home win over Middlesbrough. Wolves register their first win in 21 games by beating Carlisle 1-0 at Brunton Park with Tony Evans the scorer. The death is reported of Wilf Dixon, the oldest surviving ex-professional footballer, at the age of 102. He kept goal for Fulham early this century.

A disciplinary commission in London orders Luton to erect fences all around their ground and fines Millwall £7,500 following the violence at last month's FA Cup tie at Kenilworth Road. Damage to Luton's ground was estimated at £15,000. In a goalless draw at Millwall the referee books two home players as well as seven from Reading. They have been sponsored for £150,000 over the next three years.

The big clash in the other semi-final between Liverpool and Manchester United ends in a 2-2 draw after extra time with Liverpool equalising twice – Paul Walsh scoring in the last minute of extra time. In the relegation struggle Ipswich Town's recent revival is ended with a 2-1 defeat by Sheffield Wednesday at Portman Road. In a top-of-the-table Second Division clash David Geddis scores a hat-trick as Birmingham win 3-1 at Fratton Park to end Portsmouth's run of 11 games without defeat. As both Scottish FA Cup semi-finals are drawn the chances of a final with opposing teams managed by brothers is still in the offing. Jim McLean's Dundee United play a disappointing goalless draw with Aberdeen, while Tommy McLean's Motherwell (from the First Division) shock Celtic with a 1-1 draw.

21 Luton's fight to avoid relegation produces a 2-1 home victory over Manchester United with both of their goals (including a penalty) from Mick Harford. Controversy flares over Chelsea's new fence which carries a 12-volt charge 11ft above ground level.

22 If Luton avoid relegation they will spend £1m at their ground including a plastic pitch. Belgian-born Pat Van den Hauwe (Everton) opts to play for Wales rather than England.

25 The FA throw a party with over 500 guests from all over the world to celebrate Sir Stanley Rous's 90th birthday.

away to second placed Manchester United for whom Norman Whiteside misses a penalty, while Ipswich hold Liverpool to a goalless draw at Portman Road. Chelsea celebrate their 80th anniversary at Stamford Bridge with a 1-1 draw against Spurs and the electric fence is not switched on. Birmingham and Manchester City strengthen their chances with away wins at Barnsley and Portsmouth respectively, while Leeds beat Oxford 1-0 at Elland Road. In Scotland's top-of-the-League battle Aberdeen's 1-1 home draw with Celtic earns them the title for the second successive season. Roy Aitken put Celtic ahead with a penalty but Dons' skipper Willie Miller scored a dramatic equaliser. Following their 2-0 home defeat by Dundee United, Dumbarton are doomed to relegation from the Premier Division.

28 As Oxford aim to spend £750,000 on ground improvements before next season's First Division debut it seems that prospects of Council assistance is brighter.

30 Wales are top fo their Group following their 3-0 home victory over Spain. Ian Rush netted two goals. Cambridge United's 2-0 home defeat by Lincoln was their 32nd of the season, a new Third Division record and only one defeat short of the worst in Football League history.

4 Everton take their unbeaten run to 26 games by winning 1-0 at Hillsborough – Wednesday's first defeat in 13 First Division home games. West Bromwich seem certain to have escaped relegation after their 5-1 victory over West Ham who are still on the brink. Sunderland look like taking the drop after a 4-0 hiding at home to Aston Villa. Spurs end a run of four home defeats by beating Coventry 4-2. Birmingham gain promotion to the First Division after a year's absence by beating Cardiff 2-0. In Division 3 Hull win promotion with a 1-0 victory at Walsall, while Wolves look like passing them in the other direction by returning to the Third Division for the first time in 61 years after a 5-1 hammering at Brighton. 'The outcome of 15 years of neglect,' says manager Tommy Docherty. Aberdeen break the Premier Division points record and Frank McDougall celebrates with a hat-trick in their 3-0 win at Hearts. Motherwell and Clydebank clinch promotion to the Premier Division with vicvories. Meadowbank will join St Johnstone in relegation to Division 2.

The last time Wolves entertained Huddersfield in a League game a— Molineux (in 1971) the attendance was 21,498. The game at Notts County is held up for 30 minutes while police struggle to control rioting Manchester City supporters. City lose 3-2 and the race for promotion to the First Division widens. At the other end of the table the scramble is just as intense. West Ham beat fellow strugglers Norwich 1-0 and Sunderland look doomed after a 2-0 defeat at Leicester. Darlington will join Chesterfield, Blackpool and Bury in promotion from the Fourth Division, while Torquay will have to apply for re-election after their 2-0 defeat at home by Northampton. Hamish McAlpine the Dundee United 'keeper collects the Player of the Year award at Scottish football writers' dinner.

8 Welsh FA disregard their players' wishes and opt for a money-spinning World Cup qualifying game against Scotland at Cardiff Arms Park rather than Wrexham. West Ham are easily beaten 3-0 at Everton and look like being relegated. Real Madrid win the 1st leg of the UEFA Cup Final beating Videoton 3-0 in Hungary. Following Terry Venables' success with Barcelona, Real Madrid are reported interested in Ron Atkinson.

9 Liverpool's chairman, John Smith, is appointed to succeed Dick Jeeps as chairman of the Sports Council.

Charlton name 17-year-old apprentice goalkeeper Lee Harmsworth to face promotion-chasing Manchester City tomorrow. He plays because three other goalkeepers are injured.

11 One of the most horrific disasters ever experienced in the game's history hits Bradford who should have been celebrating their promotion to the Second Division. Their game with Lincoln is abandoned when a blazing inferno destroys the main stand just before half-time. The speed with which the fire spread was unbelievable. With so many people reported missing the death toll is uncertain but is believed to have exceeded 50. 96 police are among the injured as Leeds fans riot at Birmingham City ground where one boy dies after being injured by a collapsing wall. The second half of this game begins 30 minutes late. Everton's run of 28 games without defeat ends when they go down 1-0 at Nottingham Forest. Sunderland's home defeat by Ipswich sends them down into the Second Division together with Stoke, but with games outstanding it is still uncertain whether Coventry, West Ham, Norwich or Ipswich will accompany them. Manchester City join Oxford and Birmingham in promotion to the First Division with a powerful 5-1 thrashing of Charlton at Maine Road. Middlesbrough retain Second Division status with a 2-0 win at Shrewsbury, while Notts County and Cardiff take the drop together with Wolves. At the bottom of the Third Division, Orient and Preston are doomed to relegation along with Cambridge United who create an unenviable League record with their 33rd defeat of the season – 3-2 at home to Bolton. Alloa's 1-0 win at Arbroath enables them to join Montrose in promotion to the Scottish First Division. Willie McLean resigns managership of Premier Division's bottom club Morton.

12 Sorrow, shock and bitterness follow the Bradford disaster as the club at first denies receiving formal advice from the Fire Brigade and a letter from the West Yorkshire County Council warning them about the hazard of their wooden stand. The death toll is now put at 52 with nearly 100 still in hospital. It is the worst disaster in English sporting history.

13 The enormity of the Bradford disaster overshadows promotion and relegation stories as the game begins counting the cost of now urgent ground improvements up and down the country. The Home Secretary announces that henceforth Third and Fourth Division clubs must have the same safety standards as those in the top two divisions. Mr Justice Popplewell will chair an inquiry into the Bradford fire and the Birmingham riot. A total of 110 spectators appeared before Birmingham magistrates following this outrage. Kerry Dixon, Chelsea's top First Division goalscorer with 36 League and Cup goals is called up for the England squad.

14 Who will accompany Sunderland and Stoke down into the Second Division is still undecided as Norwich are more hopeful after a 2-1 victory on a watery Stamford Bridge pitch, while Coventry gain a goalless draw at Ipswich. Manchester City midfielder Paul Power's testimonial match next Monday between City and United is called off because the cost of policing is said to be £30,000. The policy of fencing grounds is due for a re-think after the Bradford disaster. Luton insist on postponing the fencing ordered by the FA following the Millwall riot. Bill Asprey, suspended on full pay by Stoke, officially resigns his job as manager.

League rule that Bradford City v Lincoln disaster match will stand as a goalless draw while the Bradford directors believe that they may never again play at Valley Parade. The Odsal Rugby League stadium seems the obvious venue. It is claimed that a discarded cigarette-end started the fire. Neil Webb, Portsmouth's midfield star, has transfer talks with Aston Villa.

16 Ron Saunders, manager of newly promoted Birmingham City, announces his dissatisfaction with the amount of money the board has allocated to strengthen the side. Bobby Gould returns to Bristol Rovers as manager two years after leaving them for Coventry City. A proposal to allow two substitutes for each side in Football League games will go before the annual meeting on 7 June. Ten safety experts from the GLC give Wembley Stadium the all clear. A fire at Torquay United's ground during the night damages part of their wooden stand.

17 Coventry's amazing battle to avoid relegation from the First Division continues apace with a 1-0 win at Stoke. The home side's failure to score in their final game gives them a total of only 24 goals, which is a new First Division record for a 42-match season. In winning only three games this season Stoke also equalled their old record (shared with Woolwich Arsenal) of only three First Division victories. Thanks to a goal by Tony Cottee, West Ham escape relegation with a 1-0 win at Ipswich. Swansea get the point needed to stay in the Third Division by holding Bristol City to a goalless draw, a result which sends Burnley down into the Fourth Division for the first time in their history. Brentford beat Newport 6-0 in Southern Area Final of the Freight Rover Trophy with Gary Roberts netting four.

18 A generally disappointing FA Cup Final enlivened only by a controversial sending off which seems to spark Manchester United into a 1-0 victory over Everton. The game went to extra time for the fourth year in the last five and Norman Whiteside's winning goal provides a highlight. Kevin Moran was the first man sent off in an FA Cup Final – an incident which made the 10-man United team victory the more creditable. The 100th Scottish Cup Final was won by Celtic for the first time in five years – their 27th victory in 43 finals, and they came from behind to beat Dundee United 2-1. Stuart Beedie put United ahead after 54 minutes but Davie Provan and Frank McGarvey score for Celtic in the last 13 minutes of a drama-packed game.

20 Liverpool, written off earlier in the season when they sank as low as 20th, will now finish Championship runners-up after winning 3-0 at West Ham. Thirty-six-year-old Frank Lampard makes the first appearance of his 20th season as a professional with the Hammers. Wigan beat Mansfield on a penalty shoot-out after a 1-1 draw in the Northern Area final of the Freight Rover Trophy.

21 England U-21 side, going for a hat-trick of European Championship trophy wins, are given a shock 3-1 beating by Finland in Mikkeli. John Toshack resigns as manager of Sporting Lisbon.

22 In Helsinki, England's full side do only marginly better than the U-21 team. Although generally in command they had to settle for a 1-1 draw after Finland had taken an early lead. Mark Hateley got the equaliser. This England side kicked off with three Italian League players – Ray Wilkins, Mark Hateley (both AC Milan) and Trevor Francis (Sampdoria). Real Madrid win the UEFA Cup final 3-1 on aggregate despite a 1-0 home defeat by Videoton. England's 1966 World Cup winning team will meet the West Germany 1966 side at Leeds on 28 July in aid of the Bradford disaster appeal. FA Challenge Cup committee agree that Kevin Moran, sent off in the Cup Final, should receive his winners' medal.

23 Coventry continue their fight to retain First Division status. They are still in with a chance thanks to a 1-0 home win over Luton with Brian Kilcline getting the vital goal with six minutes to spare. Coventry now have to beat Everton on Sunday to stay up and send Norwich down. At Goodison the League's top two sides clash in an exciting derby game with Paul Wilkinson getting the only goal in his home debut for Everton. John Wark misses a penalty for Liverpool. This victory gives Everton a new First Division record points total of 90. Len Ashurst is sacked by relegated Sunderland while Colin Addison resigns the managership of Newport County. Jimmy Sirrel, Notts County director, will continue to manage the team next season.

25 England's poor form in attack continues against a depleted Scotland side at Hampden where they go down 1-0. It was Scotland's first win over England in Glasgow since 1976. A fine goal by full-back Richard Gough in the 68th minute is enough for Scotland to carry off the new Sir Stanley Rous Cup. It was England's 600th international. Eire and Spain play a goalless friendly in Cork.

26 In a dramatic end to the protracted First Division relegation battle Cyrille Regis wipes out the £350,000 fee Coventry paid for him seven months ago by helping them stay up. He scores two goals in their 4-1 beating of Champions Everton. This Coventry victory sends Milk Cup winners, Norwich, down with Sunderland and Stoke.

27 Coventry give manager Don Mackay a new three-year contract. Spanish club Real Sociedad are interested in Chelsea's coach John Hollins.

28 Scotland's bid to qualify for the World Cup finals takes another step forward with a 1-0 win in Iceland. Goalkeeper Jim Leighton had to save a penalty and it was not until the 86th minute that Jim Bett scored the winner. In the last League game of the season an Everton reseve team loses at Luton. Nottingham Forest sign Coventry defenders Stuart Pearce and Ian Butterworth in surprise £450,000 deal. The FA annual meeting rejects Government's recommendations to make clubs responsible for the behaviour of their fans.

29 The rising tide of soccer violence reaches a horrifying climax at the Heysel Stadium in Brussels just before the start of the European Cup Final between Juventus and Liverpool. At least 38 people are reported killed and over 400 injured, many of them under a collapsing wall, as Liverpool supporters make a rush to get at the Juventus fans, a large section of whom are inexplicably penned in the same end of the ground. The authorities allow the game to be played rather than risk further bloodshed with the fans turned out into the streets. The kick-off is delayed for 1hr 25min and the 1-0 victory for Juventus is all but forgotten although the records will say that Michel Platini scored with a 57th minutes penalty. After the game a desolate Joe Fagan confirmed his retirement as Liverpool's manager.

30 Belgian authorities announce a complete ban on English football clubs from their country. Liverpool appoint Kenny Dalglish as player-manager with former manager Bob Paisley assisting him for the next two years.

31 The FA ban all their clubs from European competition for 12 months. Manager Colin Murphy leaves Lincoln by mutual consent.

June 1985

1 England's summer tour of Mexico, including a game with Italy, is to continue. Wigan Athletic beat Brentford 3-1 in the inaugural Freight Rover Trophy Final at Wembley in front of 39,897 well-behaved spectators. In the current climate this final was a credit to the game. Lawrie McMenemy resigns as Southampton's manager after 12 years.

2 UEFA inflict a complete ban on English clubs from official European competitions for an indefinite period. A decision about Liverpool will be made later. The England national team is not affected. Eire beat Switzerland 3-0 in Dublin to head their World Cup qualifying group.

4 Justin Fashanu agrees to join Brighton from Notts County in £120,000 transfer.

5 Paul Allen will join Spurs from West Ham, much to Liverpool's disappointment. Wales suffer a shock 4-2 defeat by Norway in a Bergen friendly international. Forest agree £250,000 fee for Portsmouth striker Neil Webb.

6 FIFA impose an indefinite world-wide ban on English league clubs. The ban does not apply to the England national team nor does it stop League and FA games with Welsh clubs. However, the ban does include Scotland, Ireland and Wales for all other games. English football officials declare this to be an over-reaction. In Mexico City, England lose 2-1 to Italy who win with a last-minute penalty.

7 Football League reject proposal for two substitutes but agree that captains should wear distinguishing armbands. Bath City fail to gain election to the League. The Welsh RFU decline to allow Wales to play their World Cup qualifying game with Scotland at Cardiff Arms Park in September. The Welsh FA were hoping for receipts of £500,000.

9 England suffer their third successive defeat in two weeks, losing 1-0 to Mexico as they wilt in the sun and high altitude, failing to take their chances. John Toshack is appointed manager of Spanish First Division Real Sociedad.

10 Northampton Town cannot afford to carry out improvements called for by the Fire Brigade and may have to close their main stand.

11 Chelsea promote player-coach John Hollins to manager in succession to John Neal who becomes a director. The club also announces a new computer card system for entry to their all-seater East Stand. Jim Smith, manager of newly promoted Oxford United resigns and takes over at QPR. Oxford name former Reading manager Maurice Evans as caretaker manager. Swansea will appeal to Liverpool for an extension on unpaid portion of transfer fee still owing for Ray Kennedy and Colin Irwin.

12 The Prime Minister meets with football leaders to discuss soccer hooliganism. A national identity card scheme for club supporters is seriously considered. Football League secretary Graham Kelly declares that around £22m will be needed to bring Third and Fourth Division club grounds up to the new safety standards demanded of them. Kerry Dixon injects the scoring touch into the England side in his first full game. He lays on England's first goal for Bryan Robson and scores another two in a 3-0 victory over West Germany. Peter Shilton in great form saves a penalty. The PFA and the Football League agree to increase financial punishment of players guilty of bad conduct on the field. Exeter City may have to close part of their main stand.

13 Sunderland offer former Southampton manager Lawrie McMenemy the job at Roker Park.

14 Manchester United will release Gordon McQueen if he is appointed player-manager of Oxford United. Aldershot sack manager Ron Harris and bring back his predecessor Len Walker.

16 England end their summer tour with a 5-0 victory in Los Angeles over a side consisting mostly of indoor six-a-side players labelled 'USA'.

17 Swansea are reported more optimistic about surviving their latest financial crisis.

18 A two-man Football League commission investigates Wolverhampton's financial situation as the club's owners, Allied Properties, settle a law suit involving over £300,000 in the High Court to keep the club afloat. Norman Hunter is appointed manager of Rotherham United.

20 UEFA ban Liverpool for three years from taking any part in European competition. This is any three years in which they may qualify and is on top of the ban already inflicted for an indefinite period! Juventus are ordered to play their next two European competition matches behind closed doors, and Belgium is banned from staging European finals for 10 years. Leicester switch four of next season's matches to Sunday morning kick-offs in attempt to beat hooliganism. Darlington and Doncaster are another two clubs in the lower divisions who publicly declare their inability to meet the cost of bringing their grounds up to the new safety standards. Like all the others in the same predicament they will have to rely on the Football Trust for part of the cost while Government assistance will also be needed.

21 Not surprisingly Liverpool are to appeal against the UEFA ban which they reckon could cost them around £2m. The Football League are seeking sponsorship for their proposed 'Supercup' to involve the six clubs currently excluded from European competition.

22 Burnley appoint Martin Buchan manager to succeed John Benson. Gary Lineker is transferred from Leicester to Everton but the fee has not been agreed. Leicester are reported to be demanding at least £800,000. Keen to continue their spending spree Tottenham Hotspur bid £500,000 for Forest centre-half Chris Fairclough but this is rejected.

24 After more than 700 League appearances with Ipswich and Southampton former England international Mick Mills is appointed player-manager of relegated Stoke City. Veteran Mick Channon leaves Norwich by mutual consent after helping them win the Milk Cup. Scorer of over 200 League goals as well as 21 for England, Channon is unlikely to play in the Football League again after spending this summer playing in New Zealand.

25 Barnsley relieve Bobby Collins of the managership and he leaves after rejecting the offer of a coaching or scouting position. The Welsh FA decide against their players' wishes to play at Wrexham and arrange for the 10 September World Cup qualifying game with Scotland to take place at Ninian Park, Cardiff. Everton, Manchester United, Norwich and Southampton, in conjunction with the Professional Footballers' Association are to take a High Court Action against the FA, UEFA and FIFA claiming that the ban inflicted on English clubs following the Brussels disaster should be lifted. Liverpool are taking separate action while Tottenham Hotspur have decided not to join in the High Court appeal.

28 In the High Court Mr Justice Vinelott refuses to lift the ban on English clubs. He agreed with the authorities that everything should be done and plainly seen to be done to ensure that events as dreadful as this (the Brussels disaster) should never again occur. The odds against TV soccer next season lengthen as the FA decide to join forces with the Football League who have been negotiating with the TV companies for the last 10 months. After examining Wolves' financial situation the Football League agree to let the club kick-off next season.

29 Aston Villa transfer Gordon Cowans and Paul Rideout to Italian club Bari in £850,000 deal. The FA appeal to the League clubs to rearrange their matches so as to give England squad a week clear before the vital World Cup game with Rumania in September.

INTRODUCTION TO THE CLUB SECTION

The team photographs which appear on the first of each club's four pages in this section of the yearbook were taken at the beginning of the 1984–85 season, and therefore relate to the season covered by this edition's statistics.

The second and third pages of each club's section gives a complete record of the League season for the club concerned, including date, venue, opponents, result, half-time score, League position, goalscorers, attendance, and complete line-ups, including substitutes where used, for every League game in the 1984–85 season. These two pages also include consolidated lists of goalscorers for the club in League, Milk Cup and FA Cup matches, a summary of results in the two domestic cups, the full League history of the club, a full list of major honours won and best placings achieved, and a note of the team's first and second choice colours.

Note that the League position shown after each League result is re-calculated as at every Saturday night, and position after mid-week fixtures will not normally be up-dated. Please also note that the attendance figures quoted for each League game are those which appeared in the Press at the time, whereas the attendance statistics published on pages 431 and 432 are those issued officially by the Football League after the season has been completed.

On the third page of each club's section, the total League appearances for the season are listed at the foot of each player's column. Substitutes are inserted as number 12 where they actually came on to play, and the player taken off has an asterisk against his number. In the totals at the foot of each column substitute appearances are listed separately below the '+' sign, but have been amalgamated in the totals which feature in the players' histories on the final page for each club.

The final page for each club lists all the players included on the Football League's 'Retained' list, which is published at the end of May. Here you will find each player's height, weight, birthplace, source, together with total League appearances and goals for each club he has represented. We are pleased that previous copyright difficulties have now been cleared up and we are once again publishing each player's date of birth.

Any transfers which take place between the publication of the League's Retained list and this book going to press will be included in the transfer section between pages 424 and 430, but the player's details will remain under the club which retained him at the end of the season. An asterisk by a player's name on the fourth page means that he was given a free transfer at the end of the 1984–85 season, while a dagger against a name means that he is a non-contract player.

Editor's note: In the Scottish League, two substitutes are allowed, and so in the Scottish club section of the yearbook (pages 478–553) substitutes where used are listed as 12 and 14, and the second player to be taken off is picked out with a dagger.

*Season 1921–22 – only 1 club promoted, 3 clubs relegated.

The Scottish Football League was reconstructed into three divisions at the end of the 1974–75 season, so the usual relegation statistics do not apply.

THE SCOTTISH SEASON 1984–85

So much happened elsewhere to cloud the end of the season that one tends to forget what an interesting one it was.

Early on the newly reorganised Skol Cup led to some excellent matches. The new form of straight knock-out proved popular with the public and led to some notable early scalps: Cowdenbeath beat Partick Thistle, Meadowbank Thistle beat Morton, and then, biggest of all, Airdrieonians beat Aberdeen 3-1. Cowdenbeath progressed next by taking St Mirren while Meadowbank defeated Hibernian. In the next round Rangers disposed of Cowdenbeath, and then, in the semi-finals – for some reason the only round with two legs – they finally removed the gallant Meadowbank. Late in October Iain Ferguson, an expensive off-season buy from Dundee, scored the only goal of the final against Dundee United to give Rangers hope of a fully successful season.

Meantime Aberdeen had been consolidating a substantial lead in the Premier Division. They led from start to finish, and, although there was a minor stutter round the turn of the year, they never looked to be giving much of a chance to Celtic, who were the only club within range. Aberdeen's young players continue to thrive and to show a class which must give Alex Ferguson much cause for satisfaction, and few sleepless nights. It was no coincidence that the team did not look so good when Alex McLeish was off injured. Willie Miller is rarely at a loss, but he is always happier when hunting with Jim Leighton and McLeish. Eric Black, who can look a bit portly in profile, continues to use his head to advantage, and Billy Stark, often cast in the role of whipping boy, looks steadier and more sharp with every game. The icing on the cake was Frank McDougall, who came fully up to expectations; even so, plain cake was sometimes the requirement, and it was a good mixture. Celtic had some fine performances, but never quite looked to have what was needed to catch the Dons. Rangers, after a reasonable if rather goalless start, faded away after their Skol Cup win, and were soon overtaken by a Dundee United team which set itself an uphill task after taking only nine points from their first 10 games. United, for all that they beat the Dons twice in 10 days, and had a host of other superb performances, failed to get their hands on any of the loot this season. They deserved much better, but how often is this the case! The division was divided into three. The lower section – Morton, Dumbarton and Hibernian – were busy trying to avoid relegation: Morton were soon in trouble, and by the turn of the year without much hope. Dumbarton, who had been most people's selection to go down, showed a great deal of fight, and achieved some unexpected results, but in the end Hibs proved to have too much stamina, and the Sons went down. St Mirren, Dundee (who at one time looked possible relegation candidates, yet did not play like it) and Hearts spent the last part of the season looking for the fifth UEFA Cup place; it did add spice to an otherwise rather dull portion of the league; the race was won by the Buddies. Aberdeen, incidentally, reached a record number of points in the division, while Morton had the less enviable distinction of being the first to have a hundred league goals against.

This winter was very open, and there were few postponements until January; even then, most games could be played, and the backlog never reached serious proportions; the season finished with 36 of the 38 clubs playing their last three games on the dates planned. The one exception was a drawn Old Firm game, which finally clinched the championship for Aberdeen. It was curious that some of the worst weather came in late March and even early April; when is this suggested close season to be? We heard very little of this one this year.

In Division I there was a magnificently tight season, with very little between the middle large bunch and the top and bottom teams for much of the time. Airdrie had a good run and led the field confidently into the new year. Then they relapsed and allowed the solid Motherwell, who were also shining in the Cup, to inch ahead; while Clydebank also showed tenacity in maintaining second place at the end. Falkirk looked good for advancement and finished third; they had talent all round, and could rue some rather carelessly dropped points. With few points separating the big batch in the middle, the foot of this division was for a long time tenanted by some famous clubs: Partick Thistle and Kilmarnock and St Johnstone were all in danger, and though in the end Partick climbed fairly clear, Killie were pushed to the end, and St Johnstone failed to make it – thus having the unfortunate record of a double descent in successive seasons. Meadowbank, who won their last five away games, none the less go down. In this they are a bit unlucky, but someone had to go, and it was very tight.

Now to Division II, where Dunfermline seemed to be carrying all before them: Montrose and Alloa kept steadily after them, giving little away. In the latter stages, the Gable Endies, under the dynamic leadership of Ian Stewart, confidently took the top place – and now join Brechin and Forfar in a formidable challenge from the north-east in this division. Dunfermline had their chance to edge ahead of Alloa when the two met in their penultimate fixture; but, in a tense no-score draw in front of large crowd, Alloa just held on, leaving the Pars with it all to do again.

The Cup produced some early fireworks, with Stirling Albion firing in 20 goals against Selkirk – a record for the century. This was the year of the Highland League clubs: Keith, this season's winners of the League, lost to Ayr United in the third round; Inverness Caley, having disposed of Berwick Rangers at the third attempt in the second round, made a visit to Edinburgh where Hearts, after spirited resistance from Caley for a while, proved too strong. Another club to have difficulties in the north was Kilmarnock: they found Inverness Thistle a handful, and succumbed in the second half to the obvious disgust of their supporters. Thistle now faced the mighty Celtic at Parkhead in the fourth round: it was an encounter which captured popular imagination, and, though Celtic were very comfortable winners, Thistle came out of it with much credit. Motherwell came through some difficult games to the semi-final, where they very nearly gave Celtic a nasty shock; in the replay, Celtic won easily in the end, while Dundee United, also in a replay, put paid to Aberdeen's dreams of a fourth successive Cup win. The final between Celtic and Dundee United was not a great game, but it did produce some great goals: United scored first, and then looked to be in complete command; an inch-perfect dead ball goal from Davie Provan brought the scores equal, however, and when man-of-the-match Roy Aitken's cross was expertly headed by Frank McGarvey to put Celtic into the lead, United had no reply.

In Europe we did not do so well this year. Aberdeen made a meal of their first game, and in the second were unfortunate to lose on penalties – though they should never have been in the position of having to play them. A pity, but by then they had not quite settled after the loss of key players, and they look a much better bet now. Celtic were involved in the extraordinary extra game with Rapide after their magnificent win at Parkhead had been cruelly washed out by a couple of thoughtless 'fans'. I suppose that is the word one must use for them. It seemed a reasonable decision by UEFA at the time, though subsequent similar events in other countries, which escaped penalty, and a barrage of fruit on our goalkeeper in Spain, make one wonder what the international bodies think they are about. Dundee United eventually came up against Manchester United in the UEFA Cup, and this crunch fixture led to a wonderful display by the Dundee team in Manchester – in which Player of the Year Hamish McAlpine surely booked his title with an outstanding performance. All even. At Tannadice there was another superb game, with Manchester United showing devastating form in winning and Dundee United in no way disgraced. Rangers and Hearts, our other representatives, both went out early, but not without giving a good showing.

The international season started with a flurry and high hopes: with victories over Yugoslavia (friendly), with six goals netted, followed by Iceland and Spain in the World Cup qualifiers, we were an eager and adept team, with a real hungry look. As the winter drew on, we set off for Spain, and were not altogether lucky in just losing by the only goal. Worse followed, for an inept display found us losing to Wales by the same score at Hampden in March: a good Welsh goal there was, but also some dreadful misses on our part. After a satisfactory result in the game with England (for the Rous Cup), we ieft for the important game in Iceland, and were not a little lucky to come out of this as winners. Spain look set to qualify in our group, and now the return match with Wales will settle which of us goes into the play-off. It all looked so different back in the autumn; but, after a long season, what can be expected from jaded and out of sorts players – especially when we are dependent on the English league and UEFA so that we cannot have the players we want readily available for vital games. It leaves one speechless, which is probably just as well.

Shrewsbury's Paul Tester (left) slots home his second goal against Bangor City in the Welsh Cup final first leg on May 14. Although Shrewsbury won the final 5-1 on aggregate, they were excluded from the 1985–86 European Cup-Winners' Cup because of the UEFA ban on English clubs, and so Bangor will go into the competition.

NORTHERN IRISH FOOTBALL 1984–85

Northern Ireland's international side once again had a highly successful season as they bid to qualify for next season's World Cup finals in Mexico. Victories over Finland, Romania and Turkey maintained the challenge but they were somewhat unfortunate not to have gained a point from the game with England (1-0). All remaining matches are away, which puts added pressure on the side. Manager Billy Bingham, however, is satisfied with his squad, which also held Spain to a goalless draw at Palma, Majorca, the first time a full international has been staged in the Balearic Islands.

Domestically, Linfield, who celebrate their centenary next year, won the Irish League championship for the fourth successive season and they also picked up the Ulster and Gold Cups, with Glentoran winning the Irish Cup and the County Antrim Shield. Linfield striker Martin McGaughey led the scorers list with 57 goals and for two months topped the European Golden Boot award, but he injured his knee in the final two weeks, missed out on the Cup Final and had a close season operation.

Linfield also undertook a 17-day six match United States tour – the fourth Northern Ireland club to embark on such a venture. The others were Belfast Celtic (1949), Glenavon (1960) and Glentoran (1967).

Sponsorship continued with all major competitions commercially backed except the Ulster Cup which, however, is now to be linked with the Lombard and Ulster Banking Company.

The Irish FA is still searching for revenue to replace the £100,000 lost with the abandonment of the British Championship, and a series of games against quality opposition are planned at Windsor Park where the new £2 million North Stand was opened by FIFA president Joao Havelange in September – 24 hours before the World Cup tie with Romania.

MALCOLM BRODIE

SMIRNOFF IRISH LEAGUE CHAMPIONSHIP

Winners £1500; Runners-up £1000. Every club receives £20 for points won in Championship.

Team of the Year Award – Winner £1000; Runners-up £500; one point given for each goal scored; three for an away win, two for a home win, one for a draw. Points, too, will be deducted to the extent where (a) a player is booked for any offence (two points); (b) a player is sent off (five points). The normal penalty scale imposed by the Irish FA for field offences applied.

BRITISH INTERNATIONAL GOALSCORERS SINCE 1872

Where two players with the same surname and initials have appeared for the same country, and one or both have scored, they have been distinguished by reference to the club which appears first against their name in the international appearances section (pages 623–671). Unfortunately, four of the scorers in Scotland's 10-2 victory v Ireland in 1888 are unknown, as is the scorer of one of their nine goals v Wales in March 1878.

OLYMPIC GAMES

The Olympic Games Football Tournament is the oldest world-wide international competition in the history of soccer. Its successes in the 1920s led FIFA to start the World Cup in 1930 and in recent years it has become the most attractive spectator appeal sport in the overall Games themselves.

All this has occurred despite the political problems which have affected the last three tournaments and the continuing criticism of the designation of what should or should not be considered an eligible player.

In 1976 the Montreal Games were boycotted by the African bloc leaving only 13 of the 16 finalists and four years later the boycott by the USA of the Moscow Games threatened further trouble though a full complement of finalists was achieved.

Then in 1984 the USSR tabled a motion whereby the demands of the Eligibility Code which had been considerably slackened by the IOC following the Olympic Congress in Baden-Baden in 1981 should be stricter in football. Of course, the USSR did not compete in the Los Angeles Games.

FIFA who administer the Olympic Football Tournament merely exclude players from South America and Europe who have already participated in the World Cup. Thus teams from Africa, Asia and elsewhere are free to use their strongest sides.

But the world governing body is alive to the problems which persist when condemnation is made of the appearance of what are clearly full-time professionals in a tournament which is alleged to be amateur or non-professional.

Without the presence in 1984 of the majority of Eastern European countries who had previously dominated the competition, the tournament in the USA proved an amazing success and gave ample evidence of why the sport continues to be included in the Games.

In Munich in 1972, Montreal in 1976, Moscow in 1980 and again in Los Angeles, football was the most attractive sport. Of 5,797,923 spectators at the 1984 Olympics, football came first on the list with 1,421,627 followed by athletics with 1,129,463.

The final was sold out six months before the tournament even began and profits from football alone produced over $15m in gate receipts representing a tenth of the overall 1984 Olympic Games credit balance.

One idea for the future which FIFA is thought to be keen to project is to make the Games open to all players under the age of 23 thus cutting through the present double-standards by which some countries complete their squads.

Historically the first football played in an Olympiad was a tentative exhibition in 1896 in Athens when the modern Games restarted. Then a Danish representative team played against a Greek side and beat them although the score appears to have been ignored by records.

In the 1900 Paris tournament three teams competed. Again it was unofficial and England, represented by Upton Park FC, beat a French representative side 4-0 while the Belgians were beaten 6-2 by the French.

At the St Louis Games in 1904 Canada were declared winners over two American sides. The Canadians were represented by Galt FC of Ontario while the USA had St Rose of St Louis and the Christian Brothers College, another local side.

Even at the Intermediate Olympics in Athens in 1906, a Danish side competed with and overcame three Greek sides to be declared the unofficial victors.

As a result of the six drawn matches in Pool B in the preliminary rounds of the tournament, three teams Wales, UAU I and Oxford were equal on points and goals by the end of the third day's play. In the penalty shoot-out competition to decide the pool Wales defeated UAU by 4 goals to 2 and then Oxford by the same margin to gain a place in the final. Scotland won Pool A with decisive wins over UAU II and London and after a hard fought match with Northern Ireland which resulted in a 2-2 draw.

In the final Wales twice took the lead only for Scotland to draw level each time, scoring their second equaliser only five minutes from the end of full time. Neither side, however, could find a winner in extra time and ironically it was yet another penalty kick competition that decided the final, Scotland eventually emerging as champions by 4-3.

REFEREES SECTION

Although the referee is the man, and so far in junior football, also the woman, most people love to hate, no game can be played without one.

Most referees will start their careers taking a training course through one of the many Referees' Societies, who run training centres up and down the country. On qualification the embryo referee will be expected to join his local Society and also the parent Society, the Referees' Association itself.

Registration with a County will follow and gradually the referee will move up the scale by virtue of hard work, time served as a linesman and by achieving sufficient marks in assessment to be promoted. Every referee aims at Football League status but only the lucky minority achieve it. Even then, only a tiny percentage of those League referees will actually achieve FIFA status, surely the high point of all refereeing ambition. Those Football League referees who are on the FIFA list this season are George Courtney, Keith Hackett, Brian Hill, John Martin, Neil Midgley, Alan Robinson and Joe Worrall.

This season there are 88 referees on the Football League list and the newest on the list are G. R. Ashby, K. J. Breen, R. L. Hamer, I. S. Hemley, J. W. Lloyd, K. A. Lupton, D. T. Phillips, M. D. Reed and C. C. Trussell. At the end of last season 8 referees left the list, 5 retiring through age, 2 failing to achieve the sufficient marks required and one resigning through being out of the geographical area.

The most senior referee on the list is last seasons's FA Cup Final referee Mr Peter Willis who is also the President of the Referees Association and who is due to retire at the end of this season.

Howard Kendall of Everton – the new Kings of Merseyside and winners of four major trophies (Canon League Championship, European Cup-Winners' Cup, Charity Shield and FA Cup 1984) in the past 13 months – was named Bell's Scotch Whisky Manager of the Year at a lunch in Glasgow. Kendall, who joined Everton as manager in May 1981, received a cheque for £5000. It was his eighth Bell's award, having won four monthly awards at Everton since February 1984 and three with Blackburn Rovers in 1980. This was the ninth time in the past 13 years that the award has gone to Merseyside, although the first time to Goodison.

EUROPEAN FOOTBALLER OF THE YEAR 1984

Michel Platini retained his title as European Footballer of the Year achieving 18 more points than the previous year, though his margin of success over the runner-up was almost halved.

Platini's success in Italy has been consistent. For the third season in succession he has finished as leading League scorer for Juventus and although the club could only manage sixth place in the table, they won the European Champions Cup. In any other year than the tragic circumstances of Brussels, it would have been a memorable victory.

The French international midfield player scored the only goal of the game from the penalty spot but his Juventus colleague Paolo Rossi, who had been the title holder before him, failed to receive a vote.

One former European award winner Karl-Heinz Rummenigge made the list in eighth place while Platini's countryman Jean Tigana was runner-up and the Dane, Preben Elkjaer-Larsen with another Italian club came third.

Welsh striker Ian Rush was Britain's leading light and the Scots had Graeme Souness, Paul McStay and Gordon Strachan in the charts along with England's Bryan Robson and Mark Hateley, the latter now at AC Milan.

FOOTBALL LEAGUE FIRSTS

The first five Football League games were played on 8 September, 1888. Bolton Wanderers were three goals up in about six minutes against Derby Co, but were eventually beaten 6-3. Cox of Aston Villa scored the first 'own goal', giving Wolverhampton W an early lead, but Villa recovered to draw 1-1.

Huddersfield T became the first team to complete a hat-trick of League Championships – 1924–25–26.

The Football League played their first representative game in April 1891. It was against the Football Alliance at Sheffield and resulted in a 1-1 draw.

Floodlit football

The first-ever game by floodlight was between two Sheffield Association teams at Bramall Lane, 14 October, 1878.

The first Football League game under floodlights was Portsmouth v Newcastle U at Fratton Park, 22 February, 1956.

Equipment, etc.

Shinguards were first introduced and registered by Sam Widdowson of Nottingham F in 1874. The cross-bar first replaced the tape in 1875, and the whistle was used by the referee for the first time in 1878. Goalnets were invented and patented by J. A. Brodie of Liverpool in 1890.

Nottingham F were the first club to use shinguards (1874), the referee's whistle (1878), three half backs (1885), the crossbar instead of tape (1891) and oval section goal posts (1921).

Substitutes

First substitute in a Football League game was Keith Peacock of Charlton Ath, at Bolton, 21 August, 1965.

The first substitute to score in a Football League game was Bobby Knox (Barrow) v Wrexham, Division 4, 21 August, 1965.

Radio and TV

The first match broadcast in England was the First Division game between Arsenal and Sheffield U at Highbury, 22 January, 1927.

The first Football League game to be televised was Blackpool v Bolton W, 10 September, 1960.

Corner kick

Billy Smith was the first player to score direct from a corner kick in a Football League game – Huddersfield T v Arsenal, 11 October, 1924.

Limited Company

The first football club to form itself into a limited liability company was Birmingham C in 1888. At that time they were known as Small Heath.

Penalty kick

The first player to score from a penalty kick in a Football League match was Heath of Wolverhampton W v Accrington, Division 1, 14 September, 1891.

Professional

The identity of the first professional footballer may never be definitely established, but it was probably J. J. Lang, a Scot who joined Sheffield Wednesday in 1876 after playing for Clydesdale and Glasgow Eastern.

Tour

Oxford University were the first to send a football team on an overseas tour when in 1875 they visited Germany.

Sunday football

The first Football League game to be played on a Sunday was between Millwall and Fulham on the morning of 20 January, 1974. Eleven other Football League games were played later the same day.

OTHER FOOTBALL LEAGUE RECORDS

The oldest player to appear in the Football League was Neil McBain who played in goal for New Brighton v Hartlepools U, Division 3(N), 15 March, 1947. He was then aged 52 years 4 months.

The record for most appearances in the Football League during one season by a player over 40 years of age was created by Bob McGrory. In his last season as a player with Stoke C (1934–35) he appeared in all 42 First Division games. Bob was then 43 years of age.

The record for most consecutive appearances in the Football League was created by Harold Bell, Tranmere R centre-half. From the opening game of season 1946–47 Bell did not miss a single game until August 1955 – a run of 401 consecutive Division 3(N) matches. Including FA Cup, Liverpool Senior Cup and Cheshire Bowl games, Bell enjoyed a run of 459 consecutive first team appearances.

John Trollope created a club record by making 770 League appearances for Swindon T between 1960 and 1980.

In the Scottish League the record for most appearances for a single club was created by Bob Ferrier with 626 for Motherwell between 1918 and 1937.

Since substitutes were introduced into League football in 1965, Bristol C is the club that has played through the longest spell without calling upon one of these players – a run of 52 League games, 4 FA Cup, and 2 League Cup ties from February 1966 to April 1967.

The shortest player to appear in the Football League is outside-right Fred le May, who was only 5ft tall. He played for Thames 1930–31, Watford 1931–32, and Clapton Orient 1932–33. The tallest was Albert Iremonger, Notts Co and Lincoln C goalkeeper 1904–27. He was 6ft 5in tall.

The longest single game on record is that between Stockport Co and Doncaster R, 30 March, 1946. In an effort to reach a decisive result, this Third Division (N) Cup tie continued for 203 minutes before bad light forced an abandonment.

Rochdale suffered 14 consecutive home defeats in Division 3(N) in 1931–32. This is a Football League record. After beating New Brighton 3-2 on 7 November, 1931, they did not get another home point until holding Barrow to a goalless draw in their second home game of season 1932–33. During that same period Rochdale suffered one run of 17 consecutive defeats (home and away) – also a Football League record.

In season 1904–05 Manchester U won 14 consecutive Division 2 games. This Football League record was equalled by Bristol C and Preston NE in Division 2 in 1905–06 and 1950–51 respectively.

Nottingham F were undefeated in a run of 42 First Division games, November 1977 to December 1978. This is a Football League record.

The longest run without defeat in a single season of Football League games is one of 30 matches by Burnley in Division 1 in 1920–21.

Six men have both played in and managed Football League Championship winning teams: Ted Drake, Arsenal, centre-forward, 1933–34, 1934–35, 1937–38, Chelsea, manager, 1954–55. Bill Nicholson, Tottenham H, right half-back, 1950–51, manager, 1960–61. Alf Ramsey, right-back, Tottenham H, 1950–51, Ipswich T, manager, 1961–62. Joe Mercer, left-half, Everton 1938–39, Arsenal, 1947–48, 1952–53, Manchester C, manager, 1967–68. Dave Mackay, left-half, Tottenham H, 1960–61, Derby Co, manager, 1974–75. Bob Paisley, Liverpool, left half-back, 1946–47, manager, 1975–76, 1976–77, 1978–79, 1979–80, 1980–81, 1981–82, 1982–83.

In 1973–74 Leeds U created a Football League record for the longest run without defeat from the start of a season – 29 First Division games before losing 2-3 at Stoke. It could be said that this only equalled Liverpool's run in the Second Division in 1893–94 when they were unbeaten in all 28 games. Their 29th game that season was the extra 'Test Match' to decide promotion and relegation between the First and Second Divisions.

The youngest player to appear in the Football League is Albert Geldard who was aged 15 years 156 days when making his début for Bradford against Millwall, Division 2, 16 September, 1929.

England's first Substitute in a full International was Jimmy Mullen (Wolves) who took over from the injured Jackie Milburn after 10 minutes of the game against Belgium in Brussels, 18th May, 1950.

Floodlights were first switched on during an International match in England in November 1955 at Wembley when England beat Spain.

The first Fourth Division player to be capped by his country in a full international was Vic Rouse of Crystal Palace who played in goal for Wales against Northern Ireland in 1959.

Harold Fleming played eleven times for England before World War One while playing for Swindon Town who were competing in the Southern League.

When England lost to overseas opposition in this country for the first time, Hungary beat them at Wembley 6-3 in November 1953, and Blackpool had four players in the side: Stanley Matthews, Stan Mortensen, Harry Johnstone and Ernie Taylor.

LAWS OF THE GAME

The Laws of the Game and Decisions of the International Board that follow are reproduced with the special permission of FIFA, and the text is the official text as published by FIFA.

LAW I
THE FIELD OF PLAY

The Field of Play and appurtenances shall be as shown in the following plan:

(1) Dimensions. The field of play shall be rectangular, its length being not more than 130 yards nor less than 100 yards and its breadth not more than 100 yards nor less than 50 yards. (In International Matches the length shall be not more than 120 yards nor less than 110 yards and the breadth not more than 80 yards nor less than 70 yards.) The length shall in all cases exceed the breadth.

(2) Marking. The field of play shall be marked with distinctive lines, not more than 5 inches in width, not by a V-shaped rut, in accordance with the plan, the longer boundary lines being called the touch-lines and the shorter the goal-lines. A flag on a post not less than 5ft high and having a non-pointed top, shall be placed at each corner; a similar flag-post may be placed opposite the halfway line on each side of the field of play, not less than 1 yard outside the touch-line. A halfway-line shall be marked out across the field of play. The centre of the field of play shall be indicated by a suitable mark and a circle with a 10 yards radius shall be marked round it.

(3) The Goal-Area. At each end of the field of play two lines shall be drawn at right-angles to the goal-line, 6 yards from each goal-post. These shall extend into the field of play for a distance of 6 yards and shall be joined by a line drawn parallel with the goal-line. Each of the spaces enclosed by these lines and the goal-line shall be called a goal-area.

(4) The Penalty-Area. At each end of the field of play two lines shall be drawn at right-angles to the goal-line, 18 yards from each goal-post. These shall extend into the field of play for a distance of 18 yards and shall be joined by a line drawn parallel with the goal-line. Each of the spaces enclosed by these lines and the goal-line shall be called a penalty-area. A suitable mark shall be made within each penalty-area, 12 yards from the mid-point of the goal-line, measured along an undrawn line at right-angles thereto. These shall be the penalty-kick marks. From each penalty-kick mark an arc of a circle, having a radius of 10 yards, shall be drawn outside the penalty-area.

(5) The Corner-Area. From each corner-flag post a quarter circle, having a radius of 1 yard, shall be drawn inside the field of play.

(6) The Goals. The goals shall be placed on the centre of each goal-line and shall consist of two upright posts, equidistant from the corner-flags and 8 yards apart (inside measurement), joined by a horizontal cross-bar the lower edge of which shall be 8ft from the ground. The width and depth of the goal-posts and the width and depth of the cross-bars shall not exceed 5 inches (12cm). The goal-posts and the cross-bars shall have the same width.

Nets may be attached to the posts, cross-bars and ground behind the goals. They should be appropriately supported and be so placed as to allow the goal-keeper ample room.

Footnote

Goal nets. The use of nets made of hemp, jute or nylon is permitted. The nylon strings may, however, not be thinner than those made of hemp or jute.

Decisions of the International Board

(1) In International matches the dimensions of the field of play shall be: maximum 110×75 metres; minimum 100×64 metres.

(2) National Associations must adhere strictly to these dimensions. Each National Association organising an International Match must advise the visiting Association, before the match, of the place and the dimensions of the field of play.

(3) The Board has approved this table of measurements for the Laws of the Game:

130 yards	... 120 metres

(4) The goal-line shall be marked the same width as the depth of the goal-posts and the cross-bar, so that the goal-line and goal-post will conform to the same interior and exterior edges.

(5) The 6 yards (for the outline of the goal-area) and the 18 yards (for the outline of the penalty-area) which have to be measured along the goal-line, must start from the inner sides of the goal-posts.

(6) The space within the inside areas of the field of play includes the width of the lines marking these areas.

(7) All Associations shall provide standard equipment, particularly in International Matches, when the Laws of the Game must be complied with in every respect and especially with regard to the size of the ball and other equipment which must conform to the regulations. All cases of failure to provide standard equipment must be reported to FIFA.

(8) In a match played under the Rules of a Competition, if the cross-bar becomes displaced or broken, play shall be stopped and the match abandoned unless the cross-bar has been repaired and replaced in position or a new one provided without such being a danger to the players. A rope is not considered to be a satisfactory substitute for a cross-bar.

In a Friendly Match, by mutual consent, play may be resumed without the cross-bar provided it has been removed and no longer constitutes a danger to the players. In these circumstances, a rope may be used as a substitute for a cross-bar. If a rope is not used and the ball crosses the goal-line at a point which in the opinion of the Referee is below where the cross-bar should have been he shall award a goal.

The game shall be restarted by the Referee dropping the ball at the place where it was when play was stopped.

(9) National Associations may specify such maximum and minimum dimensions for the cross-bars and goal-posts, within the limits laid down in Law I, as they consider appropriate.

(10) Goal-posts and cross-bars must be made of wood, metal or other approved material as decided from time to time by the International FA Board. They may be square, rectangular, round, half-round or elliptical in shape. Goal-posts and cross-bars made of other materials and in other shapes are not permitted.

(11) 'Curtain-raisers' to International Matches should only be played following agreement on the day of the match, and taking into account the condition of the field of play, between representatives of the two Associations and the Referee (of the International Match).

(12) National Associations, particularly in International Matches, should — restrict the number of photographers around the field of play,

— have a line ('photographers' line') marked behind the goal-lines at least two metres from the corner flag going through a point situated at least 3.5 metres behind the intersection of the goal-line with the line marking the goal area to a point situated at least six metres behind the goal-posts,

— prohibit photographers from passing over these lines,

— forbid the use of artificial lighting in the form of 'flashlights'.

LAW II – THE BALL

The ball shall be spherical; the outer casing shall be of leather or other approved materials. No material shall be used in its construction which might prove dangerous to the players.

The circumference of the ball shall not be more than 28in and not less than 27in. The weight of the ball at the start of the game shall not be more than 16oz nor less than 14oz. The pressure shall be equal to 0.6–1.1 atmosphere, (=600–1"100gr/cm^2) at sea level. The ball shall not be changed during the game unless authorised by the Referee.

Decisions of the International Board

(1) The ball used in any match shall be considered the property of the Association or Club on whose ground the match is played, and at the close of play it must be returned to the Referee.

(2) The International Board, from time to time, shall decide what constitutes approved materials. Any approved material shall be certified as such by the International Board.

(3) The Board has approved these equivalents of the weights specified in the Law: 14 to 16 ounces = 396 to 453 grammes.

(4) If the ball bursts or becomes deflated during the course of a match, the game shall be stopped and restarted by dropping the new ball at the place where the first ball became defective.

(5) If this happens during a stoppage of the game (place-kick, goal-kick, corner-kick, free-kick, penalty-kick or throw-in) the game shall be restarted accordingly.

LAW III – NUMBER OF PLAYERS

(1) A match shall be played by two teams, each consisting of not more than eleven players, one of whom shall be the goalkeeper.

(2) Substitutes may be used in any match played under the rules of a competition, subject to the following conditions:

(a) that the authority of the international association(s) or national association(s) concerned, has been obtained,

(b) that, subject to the restriction contained in the following paragraph (c), the rules of a competition shall state how many, if any, substitutes may be used, and

(c) that a team shall not be permitted to use more than two substitutes in any match.

(3) Substitutes may be used in any other match, provided that the two teams concerned reach agreement on a maximum number, not exceeding five, and that the terms of such agreement are intimated to the Referee, before the match. If the Referee is not informed, or if the teams fail to reach agreement, no more than two substitutes shall be permitted.

(4) Any of the other players may change places with the goalkeeper, provided that the Referee is informed before the change is made, and provided also, that the change is made during a stoppage in the game.

(5) When a goalkeeper or any other player is to be replaced by a substitute, the following conditions shall be observed:

(a) the Referee shall be informed of the proposed substitution, before it is made,

(b) the substitute shall not enter the field of play until the player he is replacing has left, and then only after having received a signal from the Referee,

(c) he shall enter the field during a stoppage in the game, and at the half-way line.

Punishment:

(a) Play shall not be stopped for an infringement of paragraph 4. The players concerned shall be cautioned immediately the ball goes out of play.

(b) For any other infringement of this law, the player concerned shall be cautioned, and if the game is stopped by the Referee, to administer the caution, it shall be restarted by an indirect free-kick, to be taken by a player of the opposing team, from the place where the ball was, when play was stopped. If the free-kick is awarded to a side within its own goal-area, it may be taken from any point within that half of the goal-area in which the ball was when play was stopped.

Decisions of the International Board

(1) The minimum number of players in a team is left to the discretion of National Associations.

(2) The Board is of the opinion that a match should not be considered valid if there are fewer than seven players in either of the teams.

(3) A competition may require that the referee shall be informed, before the start of the match, of the names of not more than five players, from whom the substitutes (if any) must be chosen.

(4) A player who has been ordered off before play begins may be replaced only by one of the named substitutes. The kick-off must not be delayed to allow the substitute to join his team.

A player who has been ordered off after play has started may not be replaced.

A named substitute who has been ordered off, either before or after play has started, may not be replaced (this decision relates only to players who are ordered off under Law XII. It does not apply to players who have infringed Law IV).

(5) A player who has been replaced shall not take any further part in the game.

(6) A substitute shall be deemed to be a player and shall be subject to the authority and jurisdiction of the Referee whether called upon to play or not. For any offence committed on the field of play a substitute shall be subject to the same punishment as any other player whether called upon or not.

LAW IV – PLAYERS' EQUIPMENT

(1) A player shall not wear anything which is dangerous to another player.

(2) Footwear (boots or shoes) must conform to the following standard:

(a) Bars shall be made of leather or rubber and shall be transverse and flat, not less than half an inch in width and shall extend the total width of the sole and be rounded at the corners.

(b) Studs which are independently mounted on the sole and are replaceable shall be made of leather, rubber, aluminium, plastic or similar material and shall be solid. With the exception of that part of the stud forming the base, which shall not protrude from the sole more than one quarter of an inch, studs shall be round in plan and not less than half an inch in diameter. Where studs are tapered, the minimum diameter of any section of the stud must not be less than half an inch. Where metal seating for the screw type is used, this seating must be embedded in the sole of the footwear and any attachment screw shall be part of the stud. Other than the metal seating for the screw type of stud, no metal plates even though covered with leather or rubber shall be worn, neither studs which are threaded to allow them to be screwed on to a base screw that is fixed by nails or otherwise to the soles of footwear, nor studs which, apart from the base, have any form of protruding edge rim or relief marking or ornament should be allowed.

(c) Studs which are moulded as an integral part of the sole and are not replaceable shall be made of rubber, plastic, polyurethane or similar soft materials. Provided that there are no fewer than ten studs on the sole, they shall have a minimum diameter of three-eighths of an inch (10mm). Additional supporting material to stabilise studs of soft materials, and ridges which shall not protrude more than 5mm from the sole and moulded to strengthen it, shall be permitted provided that they are in no way dangerous to other players. In all other respects they shall conform to the general requirements of this Law.

(d) Combined bars and studs may be worn, provided the whole conforms to the general requirements of this Law. Neither bars nor studs on the soles shall project more than three-quarters of an inch. If nails are used they shall be driven in flush with the surface.

(3) The goalkeeper shall wear colours which distinguish him from the other players and from the Referee.

Punishment: For any infringement of this Law, the player at fault shall be sent off the field of play to adjust his equipment and he shall not return without first reporting to the Referee, who shall satisfy himself that the player's equipment is in order; the player shall only re-enter the game at a moment when the ball has ceased to be in play.

Decisions of the International Board

(1) The usual equipment of a player is a jersey or shirt, shorts, stockings and footwear. In a match played under the rules of a competition, players need not wear boots or shoes, but shall wear jersey or shirt, shorts, or track suit or similar trousers, and stockings.

(2) The Law does not insist that boots or shoes must be worn. However, in competition matches Referees should not allow one or a few players to play without footwear when all the other players are so equipped.

(3) In International Matches, International Competitions, International Club Competitions and friendly matches between clubs of different National Associations, the Referee, prior to the start of the game, shall inspect the players' footwear, and prevent any player whose footwear does not conform to the requirements of this Law from playing until such time as it does comply.

The rules of any competition may include a similar provision.

(4) If the Referee finds that a player is wearing articles not permitted by the Laws and which may constitute a danger to other players, he shall order him to take them off. If he fails to carry out the Referee's instruction, the player shall not take part in the match.

(5) A player who has been prevented from taking part in the game or a player who has been sent off the field for infringing Law IV must report to the Referee during a stoppage of the game and may not enter or re-enter the field of play unless and until the Referee has satisfied himself that the player is no longer infringing Law IV.

(6) A player who has been prevented from taking part in a game or who has been sent off because of an infringement of Law IV, and who enters or re-enters the field of play to join or rejoin his team, in breach of the conditions of Law XII, shall be cautioned. If the Referee stops the game to administer the caution, the game shall be restarted by an indirect free-kick, taken by a player of the opposing side, from the place where the ball was when the Referee stopped the game. If the free-kick is awarded to a side within its own goal-area, it may be taken from any point within that half of the goal-area in which the ball was when play was stopped.

LAW V – REFEREES

A Referee shall be appointed to officiate in each game. His authority and the exercise of the powers granted to him by the Laws of the Game commence as soon as he enters the field of play.

His power of penalising shall extend to offences committed when play has been temporarily suspended, or when the ball is out of play. His decision on points of fact connected with the play shall be final, so far as the result of the game is concerned. He shall:

(a) Enforce the Laws.

(b) Refrain from penalising in cases where he is satisfied that, by doing so, he would be giving an advantage to the offending team.

(c) Keep a record of the game, act as timekeeper and allow the full or agreed time, adding thereto all time lost through accident or other cause.

(d) Have discretionary power to stop the game for any infringement of the Laws and to suspend or terminate the game whenever, by reason of the elements, interference by spectators, or other cause, he deems such stoppage necessary. In such a case he shall submit a detailed report to the competent authority, within the stipulated time, and in accordance with the provisions set up by the National Association under whose jurisdiction the match was played. Reports will be deemed to be made when received in the ordinary course of post.

(e) From the time he enters the field of play, caution any player guilty of misconduct or ungentlemanly behaviour and, if he persists, suspend him from further participation in the game. In such cases the Referee shall send the name of the offender to the competent authority, within the stipulated time, and in accordance with the provisions set up by the National Association under whose jurisdiction the match was played. Reports will be deemed to be made when received in the ordinary course of post.

(f) Allow no person other than the players and linesmen to enter the field of play without his permission.

(g) Stop the game if, in his opinion, a player has been seriously injured; have the player removed as soon as possible from the field of play, and immediately resume the game. If a player is slightly injured, the game shall not be stopped until the ball has ceased to be in play. A player who is able to go to the touch or goal-line for attention of any kind, shall not be treated on the field of play.

(h) Send off the field of play, any player who, in his opinion, is guilty of violent conduct, serious foul play, or the use of foul or abusive language.

(i) Signal for recommencement of the game after all stoppages.

(j) Decide that the ball provided for a match meets with the requirements of Law II.

Decisions of the International Board

(1) Referees in International Matches shall wear a blazer or blouse the colour of which is distinct from the colours worn by the contesting teams.

(2) Referees for International Matches will be selected from a neutral country unless the countries concerned agree to appoint their own officials.

(3) The Referee must be chosen from the official list of International Referees. This need not apply to Amateur and Youth International Matches.

(4) The Referee shall report to the appropriate authority misconduct or any misdemeanour on the part of spectators, officials, players, named substitutes or other persons which take place either on the field of play or in its vicinity at any time prior to, during, or after the match in question so that appropriate action can be taken by the authority concerned.

(5) Linesmen are assistants of the Referee. In no case shall the Referee consider the intervention of a Linesman if he himself has seen the incident and from his position on the field, is better able to judge. With this reserve, and the Linesman neutral, the Referee can consider the intervention and if the information of the Linesman applies to that phase of the game immediately before the scoring of a goal, the Referee may act thereon and cancel the goal.

(6) The Referee, however, can only reverse his first decision so long as the game has not been restarted.

(7) If the Referee has decided to apply the advantage clause and to let the game proceed, he cannot revoke his decision if the presumed advantage has not been realised, even though he has not, by any gesture, indicated his decision. This does not exempt the offending player from being dealt with by the Referee.

(8) The Laws of the Game are intended to provide that games should be played with as little interference as possible, and in this view it is the duty of Referees to penalise only deliberate breaches of the Law. Constant whistling for trifling and doubtful breaches produces bad feeling and loss of temper on the part of the players and spoils the pleasure of spectators.

(9) By para. (d) of Law V the Referee is empowered to terminate a match in the event of grave disorder, but he has no power or right to decide, in such event, that either team is disqualified and thereby the loser of the match. He must send a detailed report to the proper authority who alone has power to deal further with this matter.

(10) If a player commits two infringements of a different nature at the same time, the Referee shall punish the more serious offence.

(11) It is the duty of the Referee to act upon the information of neutral Linesmen with regard to incidents that do not come under the personal notice of the Referee.

(12) The Referee shall not allow any person to enter the field until play has stopped, and only then, if he has given him a signal to do so, nor shall he allow coaching from the boundary lines.

LAW VI – LINESMEN

Two Linesmen shall be appointed, whose duty (subject to the decision of the Referee) shall be to indicate when the ball is out of play and which side is entitled to the corner-kick, goal-kick or throw-in. They shall also assist the Referee to control the game in accordance with the Laws. In the event of undue interference or improper conduct by a Linesman, the Referee shall dispense with his services and arrange for a substitute to be appointed. (The matter shall be reported by the Referee to the competent authority.) The Linesmen should be equipped with flags by the Club on whose ground the match is played.

Decisions of the International Board

(1) Linesmen, where neutral, shall draw the Referee's attention to any breach of the Laws of the Game of which they become aware if they consider that the Referee may not have seen it, but the Referee shall always be the judge of the decision to be taken.

(2) National Associations are advised to appoint official Referees of neutral nationality to act as Linesmen in International Matches.

(3) In International Matches, Linesmen's flags shall be of a vivid colour, bright reds and yellows. Such flags are recommended for use in all other matches.

(4) A Linesman may be subject to disciplinary action only upon a report of the Referee for unjustified interference or insufficient assistance.

LAW VII – DURATION OF THE GAME

The duration of the game shall be two equal periods of 45 minutes, unless otherwise mutually agreed upon, subject to the following: (a) Allowance shall be made in either period for all time lost through accident or other cause, the amount of which shall be a matter for the discretion of the Referee; (b) Time shall be extended to permit a penalty-kick being taken at or after the expiration of the normal period in either half.

At half-time the interval shall not exceed five minutes except by consent of the Referee.

Decisions of the International Board

(1) If a match has been stopped by the Referee, before the completion of the time specified in the rules, for any reason stated in Law V it must be replayed in full unless the rules of the competition concerned provide for the result of the match at the time of such stoppage to stand.

(2) Players have a right to an interval at half-time.

LAW VIII – THE START OF PLAY

(a) At the beginning of the game, choice of ends and the kick-off shall be decided by the toss of a coin. The team winning the toss shall have the option of choice of ends or the kick-off. The Referee having given a signal, the game shall be started by a player taking a place-kick (i.e., a kick at the ball while it is stationary on the ground in the centre of the field of play) into his opponents' half of the field of play. Every player shall be in his own half of the field and every player of the team opposing that of the kicker shall remain not less than 10 yards from the ball until it is kicked-off; it shall not be deemed in play until it has travelled the distance of its own circumference. The kicker shall not play the ball a second time until it has been touched or played by another player.

(b) After a goal is scored, the game shall be restarted in like manner by a player of the team losing the goal.

(c) After half-time: when restarting after half-time, ends shall be changed and the kick-off shall be taken by a player of the opposite team to that of the player who started the game.

Punishment: For any infringement of this Law, the kick-off shall be retaken, except in the case of the kicker playing the ball again before it has been touched or played by another player; for this offence, an indirect free-kick shall be taken by a player of the opposing team from the place where the infringement occurred, unless the offence is committed by a player in his opponent's goal-area, in which case the free-kick shall be taken from a point anywhere within that half of the goal-area in which the offence occurred. A goal shall not be scored direct from a kick-off.

(d) After any other temporary suspension: when restarting the game after a temporary suspension of play from any cause not mentioned elsewhere in these Laws, provided that immediately prior to the suspension the ball has not passed over the touch or goal-lines, the Referee shall drop the ball at the place where it was when play was suspended and it shall be deemed in play when it has touched the ground; if, however, it goes over the touch or goal-lines after it has been dropped by the Referee, but before it is touched by a player, the Referee shall again drop it. A player shall not play the ball until it has touched the ground. If this section of the Law is not complied with the Referee shall again drop the ball.

Decisions of the International Board

(1) If, when the Referee drops the ball, a player infringes any of the Laws before the ball has touched the ground, the player concerned shall be cautioned or sent off the field according to the seriousness of the offence, but a free-kick cannot be awarded to the opposing team because the ball was not in play at the time of the offence. The ball shall therefore be again dropped by the Referee.

(2) Kicking-off by persons other than the players competing in a match is prohibited.

LAW IX – BALL IN AND OUT OF PLAY

The ball is out of play:

(a) When it has wholly crossed the goal-line or touch-line, whether on the ground or in the air.

(b) When the game has been stopped by the Referee.

The ball is in play at all other times from the start of the match to the finish including:

(a) If it rebounds from a goal-post, cross-bar or corner-flag post into the field of play.

(b) If it rebounds off either the Referee or Linesmen when they are in the field of play.

(c) In the event of a supposed infringement of the Laws, until a decision is given.

Decisions of the International Board

(1) The lines belong to the areas of which they are the boundaries. In consequence, the touch-lines and the goal-lines belong to the field of play.

LAW X – METHOD OF SCORING

Except as otherwise provided by these Laws, a goal is scored when the whole of the ball has passed over the goal-line, between the goal-posts and under the cross-bar, provided it has not been thrown, carried or intentionally propelled by hand or arm, by a player of the attacking side, except in the case of a goalkeeper, who is within his own penalty-area.

The team scoring the greater number of goals during a game shall be the winner; if no goals, or an equal number of goals are scored, the game shall be termed a 'draw'.

Decisions of the International Board

(1) Law X defines the only method according to which a match is won or drawn; no variation whatsoever can be authorised.

(2) A goal cannot in any case be allowed if the ball has been prevented by some outside agent from passing over the goal-line. If this happens in the normal course of play, other than at the taking of a penalty-kick: the game must be stopped and restarted by the Referee dropping the ball at the place where the ball came into contact with the interference.

(3) If, when the ball is going into goal, a spectator enters the field before it passes wholly over the goal-line, and tries to prevent a score, a goal shall be allowed if the ball goes into goal unless the spectator has made contact with the ball or has interfered with play, in which case the Referee shall stop the game and restart it by dropping the ball at the place where the contact or interference occurred.

LAW XI – OFF-SIDE

(1) A player is in an off-side position if he is nearer to his opponents' goal-line than the ball, unless:

(a) He is in his own half of the field of play, or

(b) There are at least two of his opponents nearer their own goal-line than he is.

(2) A player shall only be declared off-side and penalised for being in an off-side position, if, at the moment the ball touches, or is played by, one of his team, he is, in the opinion of the referee

(a) interfering with play or with an opponent, or

(b) seeking to gain an advantage by being in that position.

(3) A player shall not be declared off-side by the referee

(a) merely because of his being in an off-side position, or

(b) if he receives the ball, direct, from a goal-kick, a corner-kick, a throw-in, or when it has been dropped by the referee.

(4) If a player is declared off-side, the referee shall award an indirect free-kick, which shall be taken by a player of the opposing team from the place where the infringement occurred, unless the offence is committed by a player in his opponents' goal-area, in which case, the free-kick shall be taken from a point anywhere within that half of the goal-area in which the offence occurred.

Decisions of the International Board

(1) Off-side shall not be judged at the moment the player in question receives the ball, but at the moment when the ball is passed to him by one of his own side. A player who is not in an off-side position when one of his colleagues passes the ball to him or takes a free-kick, does not therefore become off-side if he goes forward during the flight of the ball.

LAW XII – FOULS AND MISCONDUCT

A player who intentionally commits any of the following nine offences:

(a) Kicks or attempts to kick an opponent;

(b) Trips an opponent, i.e., throwing or attempting to throw him by the use of the legs or by stooping in front of or behind him;

(c) Jumps at an opponent;

(d) Charges an opponent in a violent or dangerous manner;

(e) Charges an opponent from behind unless the latter be obstructing;

(f) Strikes or attempts to strike an opponent;

(g) Holds an opponent;

(h) Pushes an opponent;

(i) Handles the ball, i.e., carries, strikes or propels the ball with his hand or arm. (This does not apply to the goalkeeper within his own penalty-area); shall be penalised by the award of a direct free-kick to be taken by the opposing side from the place where the offence occurred, unless the offence is committed by a player in his opponents' goal-area in which case, the free-kick shall be taken from a point anywhere within that half of the goal-area in which the offence occurred.

Should a player of the defending side intentionally commit one of the above nine offences within the penalty-area he shall be penalised by a penalty-kick.

A penalty-kick can be awarded irrespective of the position of the ball, if in play, at the time an offence within the penalty-area is committed.

A player committing any of the five following offences:

(1) Playing in a manner considered by the Referee to be dangerous, e.g., attempting to kick the ball while held by the goalkeeper;

(2) Charging fairly, i.e., with the shoulder, when the ball is not within playing distance of the players concerned and they are definitely not trying to play it;

(3) When not playing the ball, intentionally obstructing an opponent, i.e. running between the opponent and the ball, or interposing the body so as to form an obstacle to an opponent;

(4) Charging the goalkeeper except when he

(a) is holding the ball;

(b) is obstructing an opponent;

(c) has passed outside his goal-area;

(5) When playing as goalkeeper and within his own penalty area,

(a) from the moment he takes control of the ball with his hands, he takes more than four steps in any direction whilst holding, bouncing or throwing the ball in the air and catching it again, without releasing it into play, or, having released the ball into play before, during or after the 4 steps, he touches it again with his hands, before it has been touched or played by another player of the same team outside of the penalty area, or by a player of the opposing team either inside or outside of the penalty area, or

(b) indulges in tactics which, in the opinion of the Referee, are designed merely to hold up the game and thus waste time and so give an unfair advantage to his own team – shall be penalised by the award of an indirect free-kick to be taken by the opposing side from the place where the infringement occurred, unless the offence is committed by a player in his opponents' goal-area, in which case the free-kick shall be taken from a point anywhere within that half of the goal-area in which the offence occurred.

A player shall be cautioned if:

(j) he enters or re-enters the field of play to join or rejoin his team after the game has commenced, or leaves the field of play during the progress of the game (except through accident) without, in either case, first having received a signal from the Referee showing him that he may do so. If the Referee stops the game to administer the caution the game shall be restarted by an indirect free-kick taken by a player of the opposing team from the place where the ball was when the Referee stopped the game. If the free-kick is awarded to a side within its own goal-area it may be taken from any point within the half of the goal-area in which the ball was when play was stopped. If, however, the offending player has committed a more serious offence he shall be penalised according to that section of the law he infringed;

(k) he persistently infringes the Laws of the Game;

(l) he shows by word or action, dissent from any decision given by the Referee;

(m) he is guilty of ungentlemanly conduct.

For any of these last three offences, in addition to the caution, an indirect free-kick shall also be awarded to the opposing side from the place where the offence occurred unless a more serious infringement of the Laws of the Game was committed. If the offence is committed by a player in his opponents' goal-area, a free-kick shall be taken from a point anywhere within that half of the goal-area in which the offence occurred.

A player shall be sent off the field of play, if:

(n) in the opinion of the Referee he is guilty of violent conduct or serious foul play;

(o) he uses foul or abusive language;

(p) he persists in misconduct after having received a caution.

If play be stopped by reason of a player being ordered from the field for an offence without a separate breach of the Law having been committed, the game shall be resumed by an indirect free-kick awarded to the opposing side from the place where the infringement occurred, unless the offence is committed by a player in his opponents' goal-area, in which case, the free-kick shall be taken from a point anywhere within that half of the goal-area in which the offence occurred.

Decisions of the International Board

---

(1) If the goalkeeper either intentionally strikes an opponent by throwing the ball vigorously at him or pushes him with the ball while holding it, the Referee shall award a penalty-kick, if the offence took place within the penalty-area.

(2) If a player deliberately turns his back to an opponent when he is about to be tackled, he may be charged but not in a dangerous manner.

(3) In case of body-contact in the goal-area between an attacking player and the opposing goalkeeper not in possession of the ball, the Referee, as sole judge of intention, shall stop the game if, in his opinion, the action of the attacking player was intentional, and award an indirect free-kick.

(4) If a player leans on the shoulders of another player of his own team in order to head the ball, the Referee shall stop the game, caution the player for ungentlemanly conduct and award an indirect free-kick to the opposing side.

(5) A player's obligation when joining or rejoining his team after the start of the match to 'report to the Referee' must be interpreted as meaning 'to draw the attention of the Referee from the touch-line'. The signal from the Referee shall be made by a definite gesture which makes the player understand that he may come into the field of play; it is not necessary for the Referee to wait until the game is stopped (this does not apply in respect of an infringement of Law IV), but the Referee is the sole judge of the moment in which he gives his signal of acknowledgement.

(6) The letter and spirit of Law XII do not oblige the Referee to stop a game to administer a caution. He may, if he chooses, apply the advantage. If he does apply the advantage, he shall caution the player when play stops.

(7) If a player covers up the ball without touching it in an endeavour not to have it played by an opponent, he obstructs but does not infringe Law XII para. 3 because he is already in possession of the ball and covers it for tactical reasons whilst the ball remains within playing distance. In fact, he is actually playing the ball and does not commit an infringement; in this case, the player may be charged because he is in fact playing the ball.

(8) If a player intentionally stretches his arms to obstruct an opponent and steps from one side to the other, moving his arms up and down to delay his opponent, forcing him to change course, but does not make 'bodily contact' the Referee shall caution the player for ungentlemanly conduct and award an indirect free-kick.

(9) If a player intentionally obstructs the opposing goalkeeper, in an attempt to prevent him from putting the ball into play in accordance with Law XII, 5(a), the Referee shall award an indirect free-kick.

(10) If after a Referee has awarded a free-kick a player protests violently by using abusive or foul language and is sent off the field, the free-kick should not be taken until the player has left the field.

(11) Any player, whether he is within or outside the field of play, whose conduct is ungentlemanly or violent, whether or not it is directed towards an opponent, a colleague, the Referee, a Linesman or other person, or who uses foul or abusive language, is guilty of an offence, and shall be dealt with according to the nature of the offence committed.

(12) If, in the opinion of the Referee a goalkeeper intentionally lies on the ball longer than is necessary, he shall be penalised for ungentlemanly conduct and

(a) be cautioned and an indirect free-kick awarded to the opposing team;

(b) in case of repetition of the offence, be sent off the field.

(13) The offence of spitting at opponents, officials or other persons, or similar unseemly behaviour shall be considered as violent conduct within the meaning of section (n) of Law XII.

(14) If, when a Referee is about to caution a player, and before he has done so, the player commits another offence which merits a caution, the player shall be sent off the field of play.

LAW XIII – FREE-KICK

Free-kicks shall be classified under two headings: 'Direct' (from which a goal can be scored direct against the offending side), and 'Indirect' (from which a goal cannot be scored unless the ball has been played or touched by a player other than the kicker before passing through the goal).

When a player is taking a direct or an indirect free-kick inside his own penalty-area, all of the opposing players shall remain outside the area, and shall be at least ten yards from the ball whilst the kick is being taken. The ball shall be in play immediately it has travelled the distance of its own circumference and is beyond the penalty-area. The goalkeeper shall not receive the ball into his hands, in order that he may thereafter kick it into play. If the ball is not kicked direct into play, beyond the penalty-area, the kick shall be retaken.

When a player is taking a direct or an indirect free-kick outside his own penalty-area, all of the opposing players shall be at least ten yards from the ball, until it is in play, unless they are standing on their own goal-line, between the goal-posts. The ball shall be in play when it has travelled the distance of its own circumference.

If a player of the opposing side encroaches into the penalty-area, or within ten yards of the ball, as the case may be, before a free-kick is taken, the Referee shall delay the taking of the kick, until the Law is complied with.

The ball must be stationary when a free-kick is taken, and the kicker shall not play the ball a second time, until it has been touched or played by another player.

Notwithstanding any other reference in these Laws to the point from which a free-kick is to be taken, any free-kick awarded to the defending side, within its own goal-area, shall be taken from any point within that half of the goal-area in which the free-kick has been awarded.

Punishment. If the kicker, after taking the free-kick, plays the ball a second time before it has been touched or played by another player an indirect free-kick shall be taken by a player of the opposing team from the spot where the infringement occurred.

Decisions of the International Board

(1) In order to distinguish between a direct and an indirect free-kick, the Referee, when he awards an indirect free-kick, shall indicate accordingly by raising an arm above his head. He shall keep his arm in that position until the kick has been taken and retain the signal until the ball has been played or touched by another player or goes out of play.

(2) Players who do not retire to the proper distance when a free-kick is taken must be cautioned and on any repetition be ordered off. It is particularly requested of Referees that attempts to delay the taking of a free-kick by encroaching should be treated as serious misconduct.

(3) If, when a free-kick is being taken, any of the players dance about or gesticulate in a way calculated to distract their opponents, it shall be deemed ungentlemanly conduct for which the offender(s) shall be cautioned.

LAW XIV – PENALTY-KICK

A penalty-kick shall be taken from the penalty-mark and, when it is being taken, all players with the exception of the player taking the kick, and the opposing goal-keeper, shall be within the field of play but outside the penalty-area, and at least 10 yards from the penalty-mark. The opposing goalkeeper must stand (without moving his feet) on his own goal-line, between the goal-posts, until the ball is kicked. The player taking the kick must kick the ball forward; he shall not play the ball a second time until it has been touched or played by another player. The ball shall be deemed in play directly it is kicked, i.e., when it has travelled the distance of its circumference, and a goal may be scored direct from such a penalty-kick. If the ball touches the goalkeeper before passing between the posts, when a penalty-kick is being taken at or after the expiration of half-time or full-time, it does not nullify a goal. If necessary, time of play shall be extended at half-time or full-time to allow a penalty-kick to be taken.

Punishment

For any infringement of this Law:

(a) by the defending team, the kick shall be retaken if a goal has not resulted.

(b) by the attacking team other than by the player taking the kick, if a goal is scored it shall be disallowed and the kick retaken.

(c) by the player taking the penalty-kick, committed after the ball is in play, a player of the opposing team shall take an indirect free-kick from the spot where the infringement occurred. If, in the case of paragraph (c), the offence is committed by the player in his opponents' goal-area, the free-kick shall be taken from a point anywhere within that half of the goal-area in which the offence occurred.

Decisions of the International Board

(1) When the Referee has awarded a penalty-kick, he shall not signal for it to be taken, until the players have taken up position in accordance with the Law.

(2) (a) If, after the kick has been taken, the ball is stopped in its course towards goal, by an outside agent, the kick shall be retaken.

(b) If, after the kick has been taken, the ball rebounds into play, from the goalkeeper, the cross-bar or a goal-post, and is then stopped in its course by an outside agent, the Referee shall stop play and restart it by dropping the ball at the place where it came into contact with the outside agent.

(3) (a) If, after having given the signal for a penalty-kick to be taken, the Referee sees that the goalkeeper is not in his right place on the goal-line, he shall, nevertheless, allow the kick to proceed. It shall be retaken, if a goal is not scored.

(b) If, after the Referee has given the signal for a penalty-kick to be taken, and before the ball has been kicked, the goal-keeper moves his feet, the Referee shall, nevertheless, allow the kick to proceed. It shall be retaken, if a goal is not scored.

(c) If, after the Referee has given the signal for a penalty-kick to be taken, and before the ball is in play, a player of the defending team encroaches into the penalty-area, or within ten yards of the penalty-mark, the Referee shall, nevertheless, allow the kick to proceed. It shall be retaken, if a goal is not scored.

The player concerned shall be cautioned.

(4) (a) If, when a penalty-kick is being taken, the player taking the kick is guilty of ungentlemanly conduct, the kick, if already taken, shall be retaken, if a goal is scored.

The player concerned shall be cautioned.

(b) If, after the Referee has given the signal for a penalty-kick to be taken, and before the ball is in play, a colleague of the player taking the kick encroaches into the penalty-area or within ten yards of the penalty-mark, the Referee shall, nevertheless, allow the kick to proceed. If a goal is scored, it shall be disallowed, and the kick retaken.

The player concerned shall be cautioned.

(c) If, in the circumstances described in the foregoing paragraph, the ball rebounds into play from the goalkeeper, the crossbar or a goal-post, the Referee shall stop the game, caution the player and award an indirect free-kick to the opposing team from the place where the infringement occurred.

(5) (a) If, after the referee has given the signal for a penalty-kick to be taken, and before the ball is in play, the goalkeeper moves from his position on the goal-line, or moves his feet, and a colleague of the kicker encroaches into the penalty-area or within 10 yards of the penalty-mark, the kick, if taken, shall be retaken.

The colleague of the kicker shall be cautioned.

(b) If, after the Referee has given the signal for a penalty-kick to be taken, and before the ball is in play, a player of each team encroaches into the penalty-area, or within 10 yards of the penalty-mark, the kick, if taken, shall be retaken.

The players concerned shall be cautioned.

(6) When a match is extended, at half-time or full-time, to allow a penalty-kick to be taken or retaken, the extension shall last until the moment that the penalty-kick has been completed, i.e. until the Referee has decided whether or not a goal is scored.

A goal is scored when the ball passes wholly over the goal-line.

(a) direct from the penalty-kick,

(b) having rebounded from either goal-post or the cross-bar, or

(c) having touched or been played by the goalkeeper.

The game shall terminate immediately the Referee has made his decision.

(7) When a penalty-kick is being taken in extended time:

(a) the provisions of all of the foregoing paragraphs, except paragraphs (2)(b) and (4)(c) shall apply in the usual way, and

(b) in the circumstances described in paragraphs (2)(b) and (4)(c) the game shall terminate immediately the ball rebounds from the goalkeeper, the cross-bar or the goal-post.

LAW XV – THROW-IN

When the whole of the ball passes over a touch-line, either on the ground or in the air, it shall be thrown in from the point where it crossed the line, in any direction, by a player of the team opposite to that of the player who last touched it. The thrower at the moment of delivering the ball must face the field of play and part of each foot shall be either on the touch-line or on the ground outside the touch-line. The thrower shall use both hands and shall deliver the ball from behind and over his head. The ball shall be in play immediately it enters the field of play, but the thrower shall not again play the ball until it has been touched or played by another player. A goal shall not be scored direct from a throw-in.

Punishment:

(a) If the ball is improperly thrown in the throw-in shall be taken by a player of the opposing team.

(b) If the thrower plays the ball a second time before it has been touched or played by another player, an indirect free-kick shall be taken by a player of the opposing team from the place where the infringement occurred, unless the offence is committed by a player in his opponents' goal-area, in which case, the free-kick shall be taken from a point anywhere within that half of the goal-area in which the offence occurred.

Decisions of the International Board

(1) If a player taking a throw-in, plays the ball a second time by handling it within the field of play before it has been touched or played by another player, the Referee shall award a direct free-kick.

(2) A player taking a throw-in must face the field of play with some part of his body.

(3) If, when a throw-in is being taken, any of the opposing players dance about or gesticulate in a way calculated to distract or impede the thrower, it shall be deemed ungentlemanly conduct, for which the offender(s) shall be cautioned.

LAW XVI – GOAL-KICK

When the whole of the ball passes over the goal-line excluding that portion between the goal-posts, either in the air or on the ground, having last been played by one of the attacking team, it shall be kicked direct into play beyond the penalty-area from a point within that half of the goal-area nearest to where it crossed the line, by a player of the defending team. A goalkeeper shall not receive the ball into his hands from a goal-kick in order that he may thereafter kick it into play. If the ball is not kicked beyond the penalty-area, i.e., direct into play, the kick shall be retaken. The kicker shall not play the ball a second time until it has touched – or been played by – another player. A goal shall not be scored direct from such a kick. Players of the team opposing that of the player taking the goal-kick shall remain outside the penalty-area whilst the kick is being taken.

Punishment:

If a player taking a goal-kick plays the ball a second time after it has passed beyond the penalty-area, but before it has touched or been played by another player, an indirect free-kick shall be awarded to the opposing team, to be taken from the place where the infringement occurred, unless the offence is committed by a player in his opponents' goal-area, in which case, the free-kick shall be taken from a point anywhere within that half of the goal-area in which the offence occurred.

Decisions of the International Board

(1) When a goal-kick has been taken and the player who has kicked the ball touches it again before it has left the penalty-area, the kick has not been taken in accordance with the Law and must be retaken.

LAW XVII – CORNER-KICK

When the whole of the ball passes over the goal-line, excluding that portion between the goal-posts, either in the air or on the ground, having last been played by one of the defending team, a member of the attacking team shall take a corner-kick, i.e., the whole of the ball shall be placed within the quarter circle at the nearest corner-flag post, which must not be moved, and it shall be kicked from that position. A goal may be scored direct from such a kick. Players of the team opposing that of the player taking the corner-kick shall not approach within 10 yards of the ball until it is in play, i.e., it has travelled the distance of its own circumference, nor shall the kicker play the ball a second time until it has been touched or played by another player.

Punishment:

(a) If the player who takes the kick plays the ball a second time before it has been touched or played by another player, the Referee shall award an indirect free-kick to the opposing team, to be taken from the place where the infringement occurred, unless the offence is committed by a player in his opponents' goal-area, in which case the free-kick shall be taken from a point anywhere within that half of the goal-area in which the offence occurred.

(b) For any other infringement the kick shall be retaken.

ROTHMANS FOOTBALL YEARBOOK

The 16th edition of Rothmans Football Yearbook contains all the usual details of domestic, European and international football, as well as coverage of Welsh, Northern Irish, non-League, amateur, schools and university football, plus much, much more.

As the four home countries set out on the World Cup trail once again, special attention is paid to the 1986 World Cup qualifying competition, with full results up to date, fixtures for the remaining games, and a plan for the final tournament in Mexico.

New features in the 1985-86 edition of the Yearbook include, for the first time, all the senior division League results for the principal European nations — West Germany, France, Italy, Netherlands, Belgium, Spain and Portugal, as well as a directory of all the European Champion clubs taking part in the 1984-85 European Cup competition. There is also a full history of Olympic football — now established as the best-attended and supported of all Olympic events.

Included among the many popular regular features will be the Rothmans Football Awards for 1985, the newly-updated Laws of the Game, and a list of useful addresses. Once again, the book is illustrated throughout.
